

Premature Rejoicing in New York Over Armistice

NEW YORK WENT WILD WITH JOY WHEN THE NEWS CAME NOV. 7, 1918, THAT THE ARMISTICE WAS SIGNED. THE REPORT WAS PREMATURE, BUT ALL FELT THAT THE SIGNING WAS ONLY DEFERRED, AND THE CITY CELEBRATED AS NEVER BEFORE. "SCRAPS OF PAPER" GAVE THE IMPRESSION OF A SNOWSTORM AS SEEN ABOVE.