The Wanamaker Store, Store will close at Noon To-morrow.

Broadcloths, Silk Waists, Wrappers

And Some Other Good Things. FIRST, this matter of Imported Broadcloths, and better store news has not been printed for a long time. Of all the fabrics for winter wear these firm and lustrous goods take easy precedence. In our own experience we have never known such broadcloth selling. Now then,—

Here is a good assortment of the very next to the very best make of broadcloth (of the dress-goods class) in the world. The very best costs $3 here ($3.50 elsewhere); the grade we are talking about costs $2 and $2.25. Beautiful goods, with the satiny smoothness of a kitten's ear, only with even more gloss and sheen. We offer this assortment at

A Dollar and a Half a Yard. There are thirteen shades, including two exquisite grays, and two castors. Next, a remarkable sale of Silk Waists at $6 Each. You will understand how important this is when we tell you that some of these waists are duplicated in our regular stock at $12 and $15. Not one of these would ordinarily sell for less than $9. The maker is one whose productions you pick out first from a counterful. He made these from some especially pretty silks that he secured especially cheap. Then we took the whole lot and made it cheaper. The waists are principally in richest and most attractive colors, but there are many blacks among them. The four hundred will not last long. You will find them on the main floor, Tenth street side.

Next, a Sale of Wrappers in two parts. One concerns a lot in Flannelettes, prettily figured, and a grade that usually sells at $1.25 each. Take these at SIXTY-FIVE CENTS.

The other lot is in Eiderdown, and prettier garments of their class you never saw, nor cheaper. They cannot be made for the price we have put on them. TWO DOLLARS AND A HALF. This offer is limited to a particular lot that will not last through one fair day.

"Made to Measure" Two Important Offerings. This is for dressy men, and the more scrupulously particular you are the better you will enjoy this, and the happier for reading it. We wish you to get acquainted with our merchant tailoring. We are doing some surprising things to secure your acquaintance. Once we make it, we'll keep it, never fear.

So, here's a number of pieces of frize,—the leading favorite in overcoat materials this season. In black and in Oxford mixture. Made up into an overcoat to your measure, the cost would be around the $40 mark. One class of tailors might ask $30, another class $50. We are in neither class, and would call $40 fair.

We Will Make it for $25. Again, here is a large assortment in fancy chevots—imported goods, every yard. Earlier in the season we asked you $35, $40 and $45 for suits from these, and asked only fair prices. Take your choice at now

Thirty Dollars. The first item is about a black moire Velour. Very rich goods, in bare and Pekin stripes of satin. Eight styles at

55c. a Yard. The other is a taffeta episode. We have 1,200 yards of checked taffeta silk, in the two-color combinations you like so well. There are twenty of these combinations in the lot. Goods are 22 inches wide, and a fair retail price would be 85c. yd.

Price, 60c. a Yard. Pretty Things in Dresden China. The China Store has just had its artistic interest heightened by a large receipt of Dresden pieces. Come in and enjoy, and resist their beauty if you can. All sorts of pieces, for table, desk or mantel.

Stamp Boxes, $1.25 each. Pen Trays, $1.25 each. Ink Stands, 75c. each. Letter Racks, $3.50 each. Salad Bowls, $1.75 each. Chop Dishes, $3.50 each. Asparagus Dishes, $8 each. Pudding Sets, $7.50 each. Plates, $8.50 to $14. Tea Strainers, $1 each. Bon-bon Dishes, $1.25 each. Candlesticks, $1 each.

A Toilet Set for $5. If you know how many of these toilet sets we sold, you would understand how we can buy enough to bring the price from $7.50, where it should be, to $5, where it is. They're good pieces, and well decorated. Complete with covered jar, floral decorations and gold tracery. Basement.
