

PLAYS AND PLAYERS

Saturday afternoon, Wagner's opera, Tannhauser. (Cast as above). Sunday evening, first of the series of the popular Saturday night performance, Flotow's opera, Martha. Lady Enrichetta. Miss Marie Engle and Mlle. Mantelli. Punctato. M. Ed. de Reszke. Flotow. M. Dufloche. Da Servo. M. Cernusco. Lonnello. Conductor. Sig. Bergmann.

Since the date of its original performance in Turin on February 1, 1859, when it was acclaimed one of the greatest of modern musical creations, Puccini's "La Boheme" has been heard in the leading cities of Europe and America without a reversal of the verdict. It will be sung for the first time in English in this country at the American Theatre to-morrow night, and it is announced as the first in a series of operatic novelties to be brought out there this season.

The cast will enlist the favorites of the Castle Square forces, the roles having been allotted as follows: Rodolph, Joseph F. Sheehan; Marcel, William G. Stewart; Schaunard, H. L. Butler; Colline, Herbert Witherspoon; Benoit, E. N. Knight; Alcindoro, Frank Moulton; Parpignol, J. G. Gibson; Sergeant, S. P. Veron; Mimì, Yvonne de Treville; Musetta, Villa Knox. During the series of performances Charles O. Bassett will alternate as Rodolph and Adelaide Norwood as Mimì.

Julia Arthur is to add another role to her repertoire. It is that of Rosalind, and she will essay it for the first time at Wallack's Theatre to-morrow night. New scenery by Homer F. Emens and new costumes by Darlan have been prepared for "As You Like It." Miss Arthur's manner of adopting the colloquial style in rendering Shakespeare should make her performance an interesting one to the theatregoer who cannot easily step from the atmosphere of the modern play to Shakespeare. Orlando is to be played by W. S. Hart; Jacques by Thomas Bridgeland; the Banished Duke by Edwin Holt; Touchstone by Robert McWade; Corin by Joseph Allen; Adam by Horace Lewis; William by William Herbert, and Duke Frederick by W. J. Thero. Florence Conroy will be the Celia, Ethel Knight Mollison Phoebe, and Marie Bingham Audrey.

Brooklyn borough gave up "The Christian" last night, and to-morrow Viola Allen is to settle down at the Garden Theatre for what is confidently expected to be an all Winter stay. Helen Powell, an actress who has not been seen on the stage for a lengthy period, will be the new Polly Love.

Where Good Things Are Stiff Running. May Irwin is never satisfied with a good bill, but she must furnish it up and keep on polishing up new facets of the "Kate Kip" jewel. She begins her fourth week at the Bijou to-morrow night in this breezy farce.

The well known painting "An Affair of Honor," which depicts two young women who have discarded superfluous clothing setting a misunderstanding with capers in a grove, as is well known, afforded the scheme of "A Dangerous Maid," at the Casino. Beginning to-morrow night realistic scenic decorations will accurately reproduce the plastic effect of the canvas. Oscar Girard, a comedian who will play Funaki, is the latest acquisition to the robust ranks of the Casino.

So satisfied is Daniel Frohman with the reception given "Treasure of the Wells" that he has about decided to permit it to hold the Broadway stage until the Winter has passed and gone.

In staging "Worth a Million" William H. Crane has sustained his reputation for picturesque setting and appointments. But the wise ones have it that he came a cropper, and that no one realizes it now better than Mr. Crane himself, who is going to leave Mr. Preesbury's millions to Clyde Fitch's "Head of the Family."

To-morrow night "The Turf" will clamber up to the century mark. In consequence the Manhattan Theatre will be specially decorated and souvenirs—cut glass pill boxes, with golden covers—will be distributed.

Fashionable box parties promise to signalize the third week of Jefferson De Angelis' stay at the Broadway Theatre. In his rollicking comic opera "The Jolly Musketeer," the two duets, "How They Got" and "The Sweet Oblivion-Drink," and the solo, "Wife and Woman," have taken a hold on the public's fancy, winning encores and praise.

Crowded houses nightly continue to laugh—just because they cannot help it—at the follies and foibles in "On and Off" at the Madison Square Theatre. On Monday evening, December 6th, the theatre is commemorating the fiftieth performance will be distributed.

It looks as though "Catherine," at the Garrick Theatre would prove a record breaker. She is now in her second month, and seems to be as popular an attraction as she was on the first night. The extension of the term of the engagement is a subject of general rejoicing among those who are late in returning to town.

John Drew is precluded from giving more than slight study to his new play from the pen of Jerome K. Jerome, on account of the unequalled success of "The Liars," at the Empire Theatre. It is likely that should the Jerome play become a success wherever it is produced, it will be produced by him in London during the following season.

"Runaway Girl," now entering on its second week at the Fifth Avenue Theatre, while playing to good-sized houses, is threatened to be allowed into retirement by "The Three Little Lambs," a musical comedy by H. A. Barry, which is being produced by him in London during the following season.

"Superstition" is the title of Colonel Robert G. Ingersoll's new lecture, which he will deliver to-night for the first time in this city at the Academy of Music. It is said to be his profoundest compilation of his views of things religious.

Ada Rehan, who is back in the east, lends new vim to his part. "Superstition" is the title of Colonel Robert G. Ingersoll's new lecture, which he will deliver to-night for the first time in this city at the Academy of Music. It is said to be his profoundest compilation of his views of things religious.

Good Bills to Choose From.

Marital music and prowess find thrilling exploitation in the "Red, White and Blue," a realistic melodrama, which receives its first New York presentation to-morrow night at the Grand Opera House. The scenes, laid in Cuba, afford gorgeous stage settings and appliances. The climax of the play is a battle with the advent of blue-jackets from an American man-of-war to signalize the triumph of the Stars and Stripes. The scenery has been painted from photographs recently taken. In the male contingent of the cast are Charles Kent, David M. Murray and Raymond Hitchcock. Among the women are Gertrude Quinlan, Maude Hosford and Lottie Alter.

It might be Jean Valjean, Victor Hugo's master creation, who figures as the hero in "A Grip of Steel," the melodrama which comes to the Star Theatre to-morrow night. The trials of the hero of this play are cast in equally trying lines.

An attractive bill has been arranged for to-night's Sunday concert at the Star Theatre. Alice Almerston, Lillian Burkhardt, the Sidmans, McWaters and Tyson and the Edison Projectors are among the numbers on the bill.

The grand advance sale in the history of the Harmon Opera House is the cheery greeting Richard Mansfield will meet with to-morrow night when migrating there from the Casino. During the week, those who want to see "Cyrano de Bergerac" must journey to Harmon.

Henry V. Donnelly's venture at the Murray Hill Theatre is rapidly becoming an assured success. The best week's business yet done at the theatre, just closed, is a tribute to his "The Sign of the Cross." His stock company will this week present "Captain Swift," the old favorite.

High Harry Conroy and Anna Boyd to interpret "The Sign of the Cross" in the play which they go to see Hoyt's "A Stranger in New York." There is not a grating in the grand old building in this wintery face. It is looked at the Columbus for this week.

Drury's has been heard from lend an added zest to the situations and plot of "Devil's Island," which will be played this week at the Metropolitan, across the Harlem. It is a grandly understood and well built about the trying scenes in the life of the exiled French captain.

As rich as a vein of gold in the Klondike is the strike which Mr. Proctor has made with "The Battle of San Juan Hill" at the Pleasure Palace. Each day and evening since Monday the auditorium has been crowded. Present indications are that this stirring battle scene may hold the Pleasure Palace stage all Winter, although preparations for another big spectacle will be started shortly. The battle scene is merely a half-hour episode in the usual long continuous vaudeville show which is as strong as ever for this week. It is headed by the perennial favorite Maggie Cline, and it also has the uptown vaudeville debut of Minnie Methers, a newcomer from the concert platform. Others are M. Rudolph, the Parisian entertainer; Charles T. Aldrich, Maxine and Masett, Ethel Levy, Eldora and Norine, three Nevarras and the La Porte Sisters. To-day's concert engages Joseph Hart and Carrie De Mar, Will Denby, Edwin R. Lang, Florence Moore and a score of others.

America's crimson crowned comedian, Nat Goodwin, has a brother, who is going to make a vaudeville debut at Keith's to-morrow. He is to come on the stage made up like Nathaniel in "An American Citizen," and he is to plunge into a series of imitations, including John T. Dillon in "Virginia" and Lawrence Barrett in "Rochelle." His reproduction of Nat Goodwin's court scene in "The Belle of Amherst" is said to be as good as any well as extremely amusing. A more serious item in the Keith bill will be Felix Morris's portrayal of the old first-bombardier soldier in "The Vagabond," which has been exceedingly effective in the other Keith houses. The vaudeville bill includes Jangled Harrigan, Banjoist Billy Carter and others, who are great favorites with the public.

Fun, simple and without alloy, is the keynote of the programme at Proctor's Twenty-third Street Theatre this week. Joseph Hart and Carrie De Mar will play with the farce, "Dr. Chaucer's Visit." The usual weekly debate is to be Grace Huntington, who has been made up to appear in the "A Puritan Romance." Miss Huntington will be assisted by Clarence Heritage and her own company in the comedy entitled "Cheekmate." So great has been the success of Augustus Thomas's dramatization of Dickens's famous novel "David Copperfield" that it will again be offered as an especial holiday attraction to the ladies and children. Extravagant humor will be supplied by Al Lewis, who has been made up to appear in the "Opening His Eyes." May Mooney is to sing sentimental songs and plunk upon the banjo. Milton and Della Noves are down for an explanation of "Why Walker Reformed," and a wide variety of entertainment will be supplied by Cliff Dean and Miss Josephine. W. Littlefield, Manly McIntyre, John and Nellie McCarthy, Edwards, Kernell and Williams, Clint and Bessie Robbins, Lord and Rowe, the Bells, W. J. Alexander, Leavitt and Mlle. Nevillo and the proprietor of the playhouse himself.

Graceful and daring Virginia Aragon has been away for some two years. In that time she has been to the antipodes. Her return to Koster & Bial to-morrow is an event for she is easily the best of the female performers on the high wire. Kelly and Ashby are to end their engagement in this week. Josephine and Leavitt, Williams and Walker, Jane Delorme and Monroe and Mack are retained.

General Merritt in full uniform is the effigy announced for its first showing to-day at the Eden Musee. He is to be headed in the bill at Brunelle's Third Avenue Theatre this week that is genuinely funny fellow, Press Eldridge. After him are three comedians, Dora, McWaters and any Tyson, the Sisters Bernard, Harry and Sallie Fields, and a farce, "The Lost Baby," presented by Ripley Lyle and company. The usual concert will be given to-night.

Shapely Cheridab Simpson is to start her tour of the continuous theatres at the Harmon Music Hall to-morrow. Cora Tapper and company in "Drifting Apart," Cluette, the magician, Harry Stanley, Adele Brown, Foreman & West, the three Hoffmanns and Williamson and Stone are also on the bill.

It's easy to handle snakes without danger to yourself when you have learned how. Little Uno will make that clear to you at Huber's Museum. Every species of snakes are handled by him with seeming indifference to danger. Male visitors to Huber's may secure free tonorial treatment from a pair of female barbers, Chief White Moon and several Indians of his tribe and the United Clubs' Bantam Show are extra features announced.

Nature qualified Truly Shattuck for a higher line of stage work than that which she is doing this season. She has youth, beauty and a voice capable of wondrous development. As the central figure of the Bowers Burlesques she will be seen this week at the Dewey Theatre. The Nelson Sisters, Gladys Van, Lewis and Elliot, Gracey and Burnett, the World's Trio and Huber's are the roster of the troupe. Fully a dozen clever entertainers will appear at the special concert this evening. Ducks and disarming scenes are the features of Sam T. Jack's show.

HAIR ON THE FACE, NECK, ARMS

QUICKLY DISSOLVED AND REMOVED WITH THE NEW MODENE. AND THE GROWTH FOREVER DESTROYED WITH THE MOST DELICATE AND ACCIDENTAL APPLICATION OF THE MOST DELICATE BRAN.

Recommended by Academies. It is Compound, an incomplete mixture of acids, which is applied on the back of the hand, and on washing afterward it was discovered that the hair was completely removed. We purchased the new discovery, and after a few days' use, it was found to be perfectly pure, free from all injurious substances, and so simple any one can use it. It acts mildly but surely, and you will be surprised and delighted with the result. Apply for a few minutes and the hair disappears as if by magic. It has no resemblance with any other hair-removing agent, and is perfectly safe. It is perfectly pure, free from all injurious substances, and so simple any one can use it.
