

CUBANS HANG GEN. WEYLER IN EFFIGY.

Jeered by Crowds Celebrating Evacuation—Threats to Kill Spaniards.

HAVANA, Dec. 21.—Effigies of General Weyler hang this afternoon in Cerro, a suburb of this city, surrounded by jeering crowds; while small processions march and counter-march along the streets, shouting constantly.

Business is virtually suspended in consequence of the rejoicings over the evacuation. In some instances bands of Cubans have visited Spanish shopkeepers and compelled them to shout "Viva Cuba Libre!" and to wave Cuban flags.

Printed papers insulting to the Spaniards and threatening to kill them after January 1 continue to be circulated in various parts of the island. The Alcalde of Santiago de las Vegas has seized large quantities of such clandestine prints and burned them.

The Cuban patriotic committees are planning for a five days' feast after January 1, during which all business is to be suspended.

Senora Farres, the lady who entertained the Cuban Generals, Sangulley and Laeret, and other Cuban officers at a dance at her residence, in Cerro, last evening, sent a message to the United States Military Commissioners suggesting that the Spanish soldiers might invade Cerro and raid her home. Major Harrison, though taking no account of her fears, stationed two guards in front of her residence.

This evening the Cuban Generals, Maria Rodriguez, Mario Menocal, Vidal and Julio Sangulley, with other Cuban officers, are to be entertained at Jesus del Monte, another Havana suburb.

MEN PAID IN RATIONS.

Noteworthy and Successful Experiment in Rendering Guanabacoa Habitable.

Stephen E. Barton, of the Central Cuban Relief Committee, yesterday received the following letter from G. W. Hyatt, Red Cross agent at Guanabacoa:

"In my letter of the 24th a part of the plan therein set forth was the employing of the strongest men and boys who were receiving rations from the Red Cross in some manual labor—my proposal being to set them to cleaning up the streets and vacant lots of this filthy town.

"The undertaking looked a very difficult one. I was told that the men would not go long as they could get the least thing to eat and have their women folk beg for them. Yet, without a hoe or a spade or a rake or a mule cart, or one cent of money, I determined to make the attempt.

"The American Commission and Spanish officials afforded me every assistance. Each Alcalde of a district was requested to bring me a statement of all the reconcentrados in his district, with families, condition of families, number, state of health, etc. Next, the Alcalde was requested to state the exact location of the food and clothes they and their families were receiving.

"To the surprise of every one, they were all most willing to do so, and although I only commenced on Monday last, to-day I have forty-five men at work, and I could have three times that number if I only had proper tools to work with. The streets already show for the better.

"To-day the day's work was over, which is at 3:30 o'clock, each is furnished with a ticket by the Alcalde in charge, which he presents at my house and is given one day's rations for himself and family."

TESTIMONIAL TO WOOD.

Santiago Council Will Thank Him for His Work and Thank McKinley.

Santiago de Cuba, Dec. 21.—Mayor Bacardi, on behalf of the City Council, will present on Friday a testimonial to General Wood, congratulating him upon his recent promotion and thanking him for the great work he has done here. The testimonial will also express thanks to President McKinley for promoting General Wood, and a copy will be sent to the President.

The cruiser Cincinnati left last night for Havana without the mails, which might have been transferred to Havana so as to reach New York next Tuesday. The failure of the postmaster to forward them has caused much annoyance.

TO CLOSE CONSULATES.

All in Cuba Will Await Recognition of an Independent Government.

Washington, Dec. 21.—The State Department has instructed Vice-Consul-General Springer to proceed to Havana and close up the affairs of the United States Consulate-General there. The consular offices throughout Cuba will be closed until such time as, through the recognition of the independence of the Cubans, it may become necessary to resume business through them.

The reopening of the American consulates in Spain will probably be allowed to await the exchange of ratifications of the peace treaty. In the absence of treaties of amity and commerce the status of consuls sent there will be indefinite, but undoubtedly they will be afforded facilities to discharge their duties.

IRELAND'S PRIMATE WARNS AGAINST DISARMAMENT.

The Archbishop of Armagh Says Peace Sunday Will Not End War.

LONDON, Dec. 21.—Alone among the Episcopal prelates, the Archbishop of Armagh, Primate of Ireland, has seen fit to protest against the disarmament agitation. Addressing a meeting at Armagh to-day he said he had not desired Peace Sunday to be observed in his diocese, though nobody had deeper reason to feel the horrors of war than he, having had near and dear relatives killed in battle.

At the same time he much questioned whether this blowing of trumpets and cry of disarmament was wise in the present condition of affairs.

They all knew what disarmament meant in the case of England. It would mean pulling down the great fleet—a dangerous thing. People should take care. Peace Sunday would not end war.

INTER-MARITIME CONFERENCE

Shipping Men to Discuss Collisions at Sea.

Special Cable to the Journal. (Copyright, 1898, by W. R. Hearst.)

Liverpool, Dec. 21.—An inter-maritime conference has been arranged to meet in London in June next to discuss collisions at sea.

Delegates will be sent by British, American, French and German steamship companies.

LOST OR STOLEN, ONE TITLE.

It Is Bismarck's Ducal Coronet, Hall Marked Lauenbourg.

Special Cable to the Journal. (Copyright, 1898, by W. R. Hearst.)

Berlin, Dec. 21.—The new official list of the members of the Reichstag omits the title of the Duke of Lauenbourg before the name of Herbert Bismarck.

The title was held by his father, and its omission now has caused general comment.

New Opera Comique, Paris.

That the Dreyfus affair is uppermost in the French mind was shown at the opening of this theatre last week. When President Faure entered the theatre and shouted, "Vive l'Armee!" but there were other hundreds on their feet at once who shouted, "Vive Picquart!" and "Vive Dreyfus!" As a result there were a number of fist fights.

PRINCE GEORGE'S WELCOME IN CRETE. NEARLY $1,000,000 LOSS.

Green Shields & Co.'s $500,000 and McIntyre & Sons's $450,000.

Montreal, Dec. 21.—The Green Shields block, which was burned last night, with the five-story building of Duncan McIntyre & Sons, wholesale dry goods, was one of the finest warehouses in Canada. Green Shields & Co. carried a heavy stock of dry goods, and their loss will probably reach $500,000, fully covered by insurance.

FINED THE MARQUIS $100.

Anglesley Took a French Bulldog to England Without a Permit.

Liverpool, Dec. 21.—The Marquis of Anglesley has been fined £20 for bringing a French Bulldog from the United States to England on the Campania without the necessary order from the Board of Agriculture.

Pretender's Partisans Hear Germany Investigating a Question Interesting to Americans.

Special Cable to the Journal. (Copyright, 1898, by W. R. Hearst.)

BAYONNE, Dec. 21.—The Carlists here have received information that Don Carlos, after holding a council at Venice with his leading supporters, has started for the Spanish frontier.

The Carlists are certainly ready to move. Sagasta has offered the War Ministry to Weyler, while Don Carlos has reason to hope that he will receive the support of Marshal Blanco.

LONDON, Dec. 22.—The Rome correspondent of the Daily Chronicle says: "In response to another appeal from the Queen Regent of Spain, the Pope has confidentially written to Don Carlos asking him to stop the Carlist agitation."

ANOTHER VICTIM OF A PARIS VICE-CONSUL.

Young Woman Finds That Her $1,000 Has Gone with Embezzler Shropshire.

Special Cable Dispatch. (Copyright, 1898, by W. R. Hearst.)

Paris, Dec. 21.—"I should like to have the money I deposited here over three years ago and the accumulated interest," said a neatly dressed young woman to-day to United States Consul-General Gowdy.

He replied that the Consulate was not in the banking business and wished to know what she meant. A little explanation developed that the young woman was Miss Wilcox, of New York, who had returned to Paris to resume her art studies. She explained that she had entrusted Clyde Shropshire, who was Vice-Consul at the time, with $1,000 to place at interest for her. She produced documents with Shropshire's signature and the official seal of the Consulate.

Miss Wilcox is only one of many victims that Shropshire has ruined here. The late Consul-General Moore discovered his crimes and dismissed him. Referring to Miss Wilcox and other cases, Consul-General Gowdy said to-day:

"Though our Government lost no money by Shropshire's embezzling, it is a great pity he escaped unpunished. I try to protect our women art students in Paris as though they were our own sisters. Shropshire appropriated the money of his unsuspecting countrywomen and it is indeed fortunate that they, not having full purses, should be made to bear the consequences."

DANISH SCHOOLS BARRED.

Germans Will Be Banned Who Send Children Across the Line.

Special Cable to the Journal. (Copyright, 1898, by W. R. Hearst.)

Berlin, Dec. 21.—Minister Koelliker has ordered the Provincial Council of Sonderburg to publish an edict declaring that parents who send their children across the frontier to Danish schools shall be expelled from German territory.

The educational authorities have learned that in the former Danish territory of Schleswig-Holstein many children have been sent to Denmark to be educated since the use of their own language in the schools was abolished by the German Government.

SULTAN'S PRESENTS FOR THE KAISER.

The Steamer Lesbos, from Constantinople, Brings Many Rare Gifts from Abdul Hamid.

Hamburg, Dec. 21.—The steamer Lesbos, of the German Levant Line, has arrived from Constantinople with the Sultan's presents for the German imperial court.

The presents are packed in a number of large cases which will barely go into one railway van. They consist of embroideries, carpets, silk stuffs from the Sultan's manufactories, pictures and other works of art.

In the magnificent palace gardens of Constantinople the Empress was specially interested in some young cedars and a coffee tree laden with fruit. The Sultan has sent all these things and confided them to the care of a head gardener, a German, who has been in his service for years.

Abdul Hamid also sent about seventy rare fowls. The Emperor will be greatly pleased with two beautiful eagles. The Sultan having given them to him, knowing his love for rowing.

ITALY'S KING AND QUEEN WILL VISIT PARIS.

They Will Stay There a Week During the Exposition—New Italian Loan.

Rome, Dec. 21.—As a result of the recent Franco-Italian commercial rapprochement, the King and Queen will visit Paris Exposition. The Queen has never been in Paris. The royal couple will stay a fortnight.

The Government has decided to issue an internal loan of 200,000,000 lire in order to consolidate the treasury obligations.

WE WIN A TRADE FIGHT.

Exports to Canada Grow Despite the Preferential Tariff.

Washington, Dec. 21.—The preferential tariff in favor of Great Britain has not worked particularly well in Canada, according to Commercial Agent Hunt at Palmerston.

For four months ending October 31 the Dominion had been allowing British goods a preference of 25 per cent in import duties. Yet the importation of British goods increased slightly only in bulk, while even paying the discriminating duty of 25 per cent the imports of iron and steel from the United States increased so notably that they more than offset this.

ARRESTED ALL THE EDITORS.

Belgrade, Dec. 21.—After arresting sixteen editors successively within a year the Government has at last succeeded in forcing the Srpki Dolek, the only Radical journal of the city, to the wall. All of the editors are now in prison.

The arrest of the sixteenth editor was a knockout blow, and for the present publication has had to be suspended.

Gold Plate for King Menelik.

A party of Englishmen left London a few days ago for Abyssinia on a "big game" shooting expedition. They took with them a handsome piece of gold plate as a present to the Negus, which was made in accordance with a special design from His Abyssinian Majesty after he had been informed of the intention of the hunters.

PANAMA CANAL'S NEW LIFE LEASE. A MARCHIONESS IN A WORKHOUSE.

Colombian Congress Grants the Company All Needed Time.

AN UNLIMITED EXTENSION, WERE AN UNSAVORY PAIR.

Paris Gaulois Claims That Our Government Will Surely Acquire French Route.

COLON, Dec. 21.

Colombia, Dec. 21.—Dispatches received here yesterday from Senor J. M. Marroquin, Vice-President of Colombia, now at Bogota, and from Senator Zubizarra confirm the report that the Colombian Congress will grant the Panama Canal Company such an extension of time under its concession as may be necessary to complete the work.

Special Cable to the Journal. (Copyright, 1898, by W. R. Hearst.)

Paris, Dec. 21.—The Gaulois to-day, in an article on the Panama and Nicaragua canals, says that the debates in the United States Congress are a mere bluff initiated by the Government at Washington as a blind, prior to opening negotiations with France for the surrender of the incomplete Panama Canal, with its concessions.

The Gaulois declares that the Americans know Panama is the best route and therefore mean to acquire it.

LONDON, Dec. 21.

The Marchioness of Donegall will be her Christmas dinner in a London workhouse. Ill, miserably clad and apparently in acute distress, she applied yesterday for admittance to the Great Northern Hospital, from which place she was removed to the Islington Workhouse Infirmary. She explained that she was homeless and not willing to communicate with her wealthy friends or with her husband, who is suffering from pneumonia.

George Augustus Hamilton Cliechester, fifth Marquis of Donegall, was born in 1822, and succeeded to the title in 1886. He was twice married. His first wife was Lucy Elizabeth Virginia, daughter of Henry Holt Oliver, Esq., of Weston Priory, Somerset, whom he married in 1853. This marriage was annulled a year or so later. His second wife was Mary Ann Williams, daughter of the late Edward Cobb, Esq., of Wright's Lane, Kensington, and of Arnold, Kent, to whom he was united in 1868. The Marquis has no children by either of his wives. His seat is Island Magee, Belfast, Ireland.

The family affairs of the Marquis of Donegall have been for years a disgrace to the British nobility. Even at the present advanced age of seventy-seven the Marquis keeps up his dissolute habits of life, and it must be said that the career of the Marquis has not been much better than that of her husband.

The title of Donegall is of the Irish peerage, dating back to 1225, when the first Baron Donegall was created. This old baron, whose plain name was Cliechester, was the founder of the family that was later raised to higher peerage and took the name of Donegall. The present Marquis was born in 1852, but had to wait until 1889 before his rugged old father died and let him inherit the estates and a seat in the British House of Lords as Baron Cliechester.

But meanwhile the heir had been leading a swift life. He married for his second wife in 1885 a Miss Cobb, of London, but they separated in 1873, when she brought suit for divorce. She did not get a decree, however, because it was proved that she was as guilty as he in marital infidelities. She got yearly alimony, however.

In 1888, when the Marquis succeeded to his title, she sued for an increase of the alimony, and the whole unsavory family mess was aired in court. The Marchioness was unfortunate, for she not only failed to get more money, but lost the original allowance. Since then she has been going steadily downward in the social scale, while the Marquis became a bankrupt with enormous liabilities. The estates in Ireland are so strictly entailed that he cannot touch them. The heir to the title is the present Marquis's brother.

The Marquis has had a troubled financial career. He was declared a bankrupt in 1889, with liabilities estimated at £518,815 (£2,594,075). He then said he considered he was justified in raising half a million of money. In view of the fact that he had prospects of succeeding to an estate of £50,000 (£250,000) a year. But owing to the entail he succeeded to only £180 (£900) a year. He was mixed up in financial speculation this year, when he lent his name to a company prospectus, which caused the Star to criticize him as "a peer with a record of disgracing the order to which he belonged."

TROUBLE IN ELECTING A KING FOR SAMOA.

Mataafa's Supporters Warlike, with the German Consul Reported to Be Aiding Them.

Auckland, N. Z., Dec. 21.—Advice received here from Samoa, under date of December 16, says there is serious trouble in connection with the election of a King to succeed the late King Malietoa.

The supporters of Mataafa have become warlike, and it is reported that the German Consul is supporting Mataafa in spite of the agreement arrived at between the Consul to remain neutral and allow the Chief Justice to decide the question of succession.

The foreign residents fear there will be an outbreak of tribal war when the Chief Justice pronounces his decision, about the end of the year, and they are anxious for naval protection.

SECRET WORK ON CABLES.

French Steamer Mysteriously Busy on the Grand Banks.

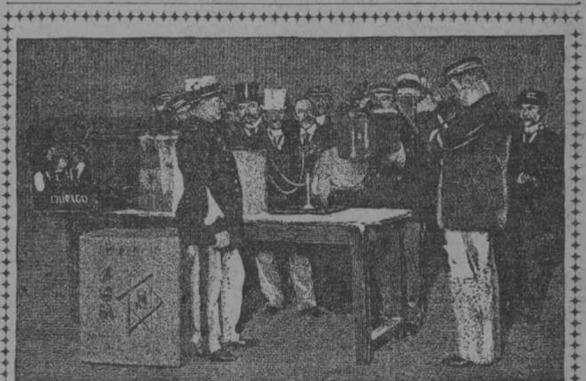

St. John's, N. F., Dec. 21.—The French cable steamer Centre Amiral Courbet, which has been engaged during the past two weeks in altering the positions of the French cables across the Grand Banks, appeared off this harbor last evening. She did not enter, and when dawn came to-day, it was found she had disappeared.

The impression is general among marine people that she engaged in cable work of a secret character, which is carried on for naval protection.

WHISKEY CRISIS AVERTED.

Glasgow, Dec. 21.

The examination into the affairs of Pattison's Bonded Warehouse Company shows that the concern will pay in full and the threatened whiskey crisis is thus averted.

THE X-RAY A NEW TERROR OF SMUGGLERS.

Dr. Roentgen's great invention promises to become a very useful article for custom house officers. In Hamburg and other parts of Germany experiments have already been made with the X-ray with baggage and wearing apparel of travellers on their entrance into the Fatherland. The X-ray has proven an infallible detective of dutiable goods, and will greatly facilitate the labors of the custom house officers.

PREACHER PURSUED BY HIS BAD LUCK.

Imperial Pastor Rogge Meets with Another Accident at the Funeral of an Official.

Berlin, Dec. 21.—A strange Nemesis seems to pursue the Imperial Court Preacher, Rogge. On every occasion when he has officiated at important obsequies he has been the victim of a serious accident. The latest misadventure of this sort has happened to him for work; he will be confined to his bed for some time to come.

While Dr. Rogge was mounting his pulpit to deliver the sermon at the funeral of Hans Wernicke, a Government official, he stumbled over one of the large floral pieces standing near the coffin of the deceased and struck his head against the sharp corner of a bureau. He was led from the pulpit in a dazed condition and bleeding profusely.

Only a few months ago, while conducting the services at the funeral of a prominent German official, Dr. Rogge fell into the open grave over which he stood and broke his leg. This injury crippled him for life.

AMERICAN COAL IN URUGUAY.

Cargoes Sold Readily in Competition with the Welsh Product.

Washington, Dec. 21.—Consul Swain at Montevideo reports that American coal has come into the River Plata in active connection with the Welsh coal. The English coal yards had a complete monopoly of that market until last July, when the Pocahontas Company established itself on the River Plata and secured contracts to the amount of $200,000.

Genie Council says that three large cargoes of American coal have arrived already and been eagerly taken, and he adds proudly that "American coal has come to stay in these markets."

MONSTER RAILROAD MAP.

Unique Plan of American Railway Men for Paris Exposition.

Chicago, Dec. 21.—Thirty railroads were represented at a meeting held at the Grand Pacific Hotel to-day to consider a joint exhibit at the Paris Exhibition in 1900. The plan suggested is to construct a large scenic map that shall show every railroad in the country by electrical devices, and the elevations and natural features of the country in proper proportion and color.

It was decided to raise $100,000 for the exhibit.

Poet's Wife Becomes a Jewess.

Paris, Dec. 21.—Madame Kahn, wife of Gustave Kahn, the poet, has been admitted to the Jewish Church, and has also gone through a marriage ceremony with her husband in accordance with the Jewish rites. She was formerly a Catholic, and took this step in resentment of the feeling against her husband's people.
