

WOMEN AT THE SUFFRAGE CONVENTION IN WASHINGTON

Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont and Mrs.

Inez
Milholland Boissevain.

(Photos (C) by International News Service.)

Advocates of Equal Franchise Represented Every State In the Union At Their Association's Annual Meeting This Month. They Left Nothing Undone To Impress Congress and the Wilson Administration With the Strength of Their Movement.

STATE SENATOR HELEN RING ROBINSON of Colorado.

Miss Mildred Koonce of North Carolina (Left) and Miss Alice Paul of New Jersey. Miss Paul Once Got Into Trouble for Giving Aid to the English Militants.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman
Catt.

Miss Esther Abelson of Rhode Island, Selling a Paper to Mrs. James Lees Laidlaw of New York. (Photo by G. V. Buck.)

Mrs. Henry
Villard.