

UNPUBLISHED BUST OF LINCOLN By Sir Moses Ezekiel

This Study of the Martyred President Is Particularly Interesting Since the Distinguished Sculptor Was a Confederate Soldier, Having Enlisted When a Cadet at the Virginia Military Institute. The Bust Is Owned by Nathaniel Myers of New York. (Photo (C) by Paul Strand.)

CAMERA IN THE TRAIL OF NEWS

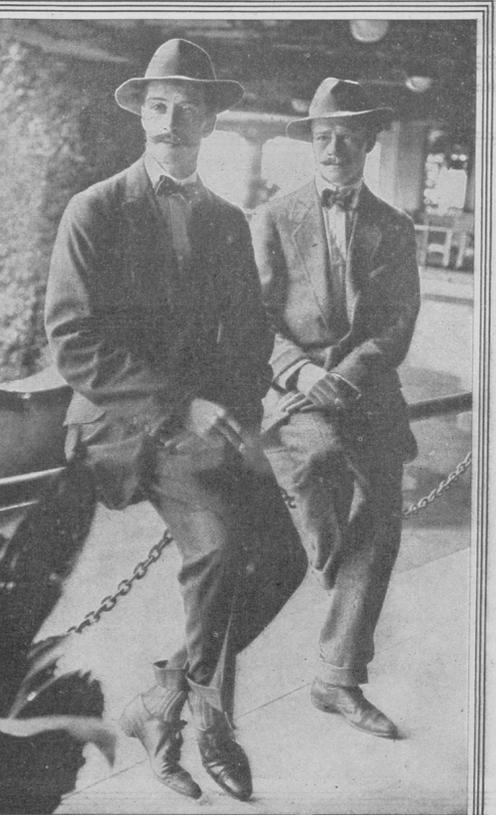

Col. Roosevelt at Sao Paolo, Brazil, Keenly Interested in a Fight Between a Cobra and a Jararaca (Photo by Bain News Service.)

CHARLES DANA GIBSON AT HIS DRAWING TABLE
Characteristic Portrait of the Creator of the Famous "Gibson Girl" Taken Last Week Though a Maker of Pictures, Mr. Gibson Has Rarely Had One Made of Himself. (Photo (C) by Pach Bros., N. Y.)

FOUNTAIN IN MEMORY OF JACK PHILLIPS, OF THE TITANIC, AND OTHER HEROIC WIRELESS OPERATORS WHO STOOD BY THEIR KEYS TO THE END
The Memorial Will Be Erected at the Base of the Barge Office Tower at the Battery in Sight of All Ships Entering and Leaving the Harbor (Designed by Hewitt & Bottomley.)

ARTHUR AND REGINALD PAGET, Twin Sons of Sir Arthur and Lady Paget, Formerly Miss Mary Fiske Stevens of N. Y. They Have Just Returned to London After Two Years of "Roughing It" on Their Mother's Ranch in California (Photo by Underwood & Underwood.)

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Isham
The Bride, Who Is Only Sixteen, Was Miss Marion Gaynor, Daughter of the Late Mayor W. J. Gaynor (Photo (C) by Underwood & Underwood.)