

WHERE ALL ARE CHILDREN AGAIN ON SNOW-CLAD HILLS

Little Dwellers In the Land of Make-Believe

The Little Brothers

Down a Sharp Hillside in Central Park.

Left to Right—Little Misses Priscilla, Helen, and Marion Choate, Granddaughters of Ex-Ambassador Joseph H. Choate. (Photo (C) by American Press Assn.)

AFTER A HARD DAY'S WORK. Little Misses Sallie and Mary Thacher, Daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Thacher. (Photo (C) by American Press Assn.)

Princesses Kyra and Marie, Daughters of Grand Duchess Melita, Whose Marriage to Grand Duke Cyril Eliminated Him as a Possible Successor to the Russian Throne. (Photos by Bath-News Service.)

Prince Luitpold, Heir Apparent to the Throne of Bavaria, Whose Grandfather, King Ludwig, May Come Here.

The Greyhound, with Its Fair Crew of Eleven Girls and Pilot "Tom" Haggerty, Which Won the Beauty Prize in the Huntington Carnival and Made the Mile Course in 42 Seconds.

Left to Right—Miss Mary Corwin, Mrs. Harry Bedell, Mrs. John W. Tuite, Mrs. John Skidmore, Miss Irene Ginsch, Mrs. J. Feather, Miss Mabel Feather, Mrs. Jacob Schulz, Mrs. E. T. Rimas, and Pilot Haggerty. (Photo (C) by Underwood & Underwood.)