

GERMAN TROOPS AND ARMY TRAINS SWARM OVER BELGIUM

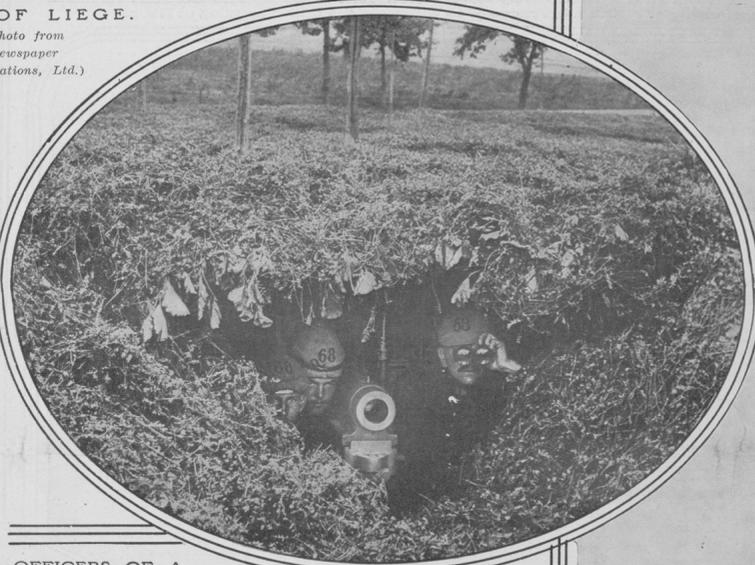

THE GERMAN CAMP AT VISE A FEW MILES NORTHEAST OF LIEGE. In the Hollow on the Right Is a Group of Belgian Soldiers Captured in the Vise Fight. Beneath and Beyond the Trees Are the Soldiers' Camps and Wagon Trains.

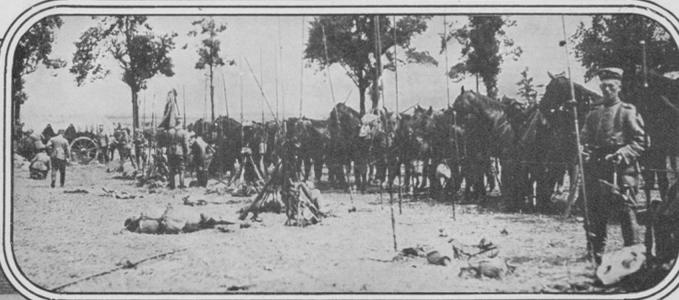

(Photo from Newspaper Illustrations, Ltd.)

GERMAN AND SWISS BORDER GUARDS AT BASLE, SWITZERLAND. (Photos (C) by Underwood & Underwood.)

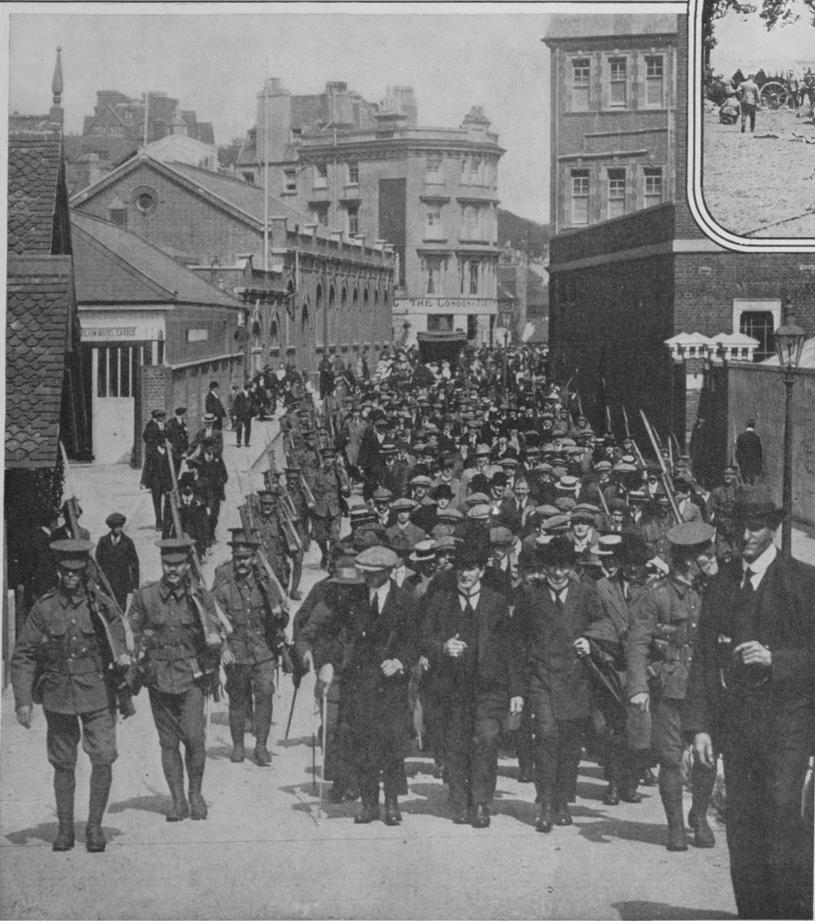

OFFICERS OF A GERMAN ARTILLERY REGIMENT, Under Cover, Looking for French and Belgian Aeroplanes

GERMAN UHLANS CARING FOR THEIR WOUNDED ON THE FIELD.

GERMAN WAR BALLOON Operated by a Prussian Infantry Squad Before Metz. (Photo (C) by American Press Assn.)

MORE THAN TWO HUNDRED GERMAN RESERVISTS MADE PRISONERS OF WAR at Folkestone, England, on Attempting to Reach Holland by the Flushing Boat. (Photo (C) by International News Service.)

GERMAN CAVALRY ASSEMBLED BEFORE LIEGE. (Photos (C) by Brown Bros.)