

WOMEN AND CHILDREN FLEEING FROM BELFORT, FRANCE, WITH SUCH OF THEIR POSSESSIONS AS COULD BE CARRIED.
(Photo by International News Service.)

FIRST WOUNDED BRITISH SOLDIERS RETURNING TO FOLKESTONE, ENGLAND, Attended by Englishwomen Who Went to France to Meet Them.
(Photos from Press Illustrating Co.)

FRENCH OFFICER TAKING OBSERVATIONS FROM AN ARMORED LADDER.
(Photos (C) by American Press Association.)

WOUNDED SCOTTISH HIGHLANDERS RETURNING TO ENGLAND, ONE BRINGING A GERMAN CAP AS A TROPHY.

GERMAN RESERVE, FLEEING FROM RUSSIA, SHAVING ON THE SEASHORE AT HAPARANDA ON THE GULF OF BOTHNIA. This Photograph Was Made by C. E. Barton of Norwood, Ohio, Who Was a Fellow-Refugee.

GIRLS TAKING THE PLACES OF THE MEN ON THE PARIS STREET RAILWAYS.
(Photo by Paul Thompson.)