

BRITISH ARMY MEDICAL CORPS SNATCHING A BIT OF DAYLIGHT REST BETWEEN BATTLES IN NORTHERN FRANCE. EVEN ONE OF THE HORSES HAS LAIN DOWN.

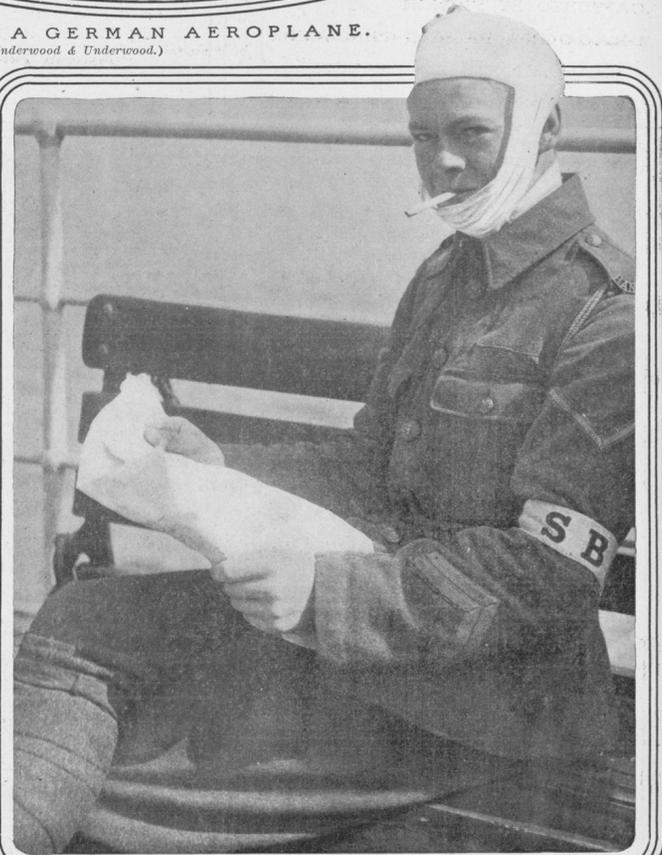

PARISIANS FLEEING WHEN A SIEGE OF THE CAPITAL SEEMED IMMINENT.
(Photos (C) by International News Service.)

RUE DES VIMARGRIERS, PARIS, TORN UP BY A BOMB DROPPED FROM A GERMAN AEROPLANE.
(Photo (C) by Underwood & Underwood.)

SOLDIERS WOUNDED IN THE BATTLE OF MONS, BELGIUM, RECEIVING FRUIT FROM GIRLS OUTSIDE THE MILITARY HOSPITAL, WOOLWICH, LONDON
(Photo (C) by Brown Bros.)

WOUNDED BRITISH SOLDIER LEAVING HAVRE FOR HOME.
(Photo (C) by American Press Assn.)