

BELGIANS IN LINE OF BATTLE BEHIND BREASTWORKS AT HAMME TO REPEL GERMANS EXPECTED AT A BRIDGE, WHICH HAS ALREADY BEEN DYNAMITED TO IMPEDE THEM.

J. J. ROUSSEAU, THE YOUNG BELGIAN SOLDIER SEATED BETWEEN TWO COMRADES, WHO WOUNDED AND CAPTURED Count von Buelow, Son of the Former German Chancellor, RECEIVING AS A REWARD FROM KING ALBERT THE MILITARY GOLD CROSS WHICH HE IS WEARING.

(Photo (C) by Underwood & Underwood.)

CHURCH AT VISE, BELGIUM, DESTROYED BY THE GERMAN BOMBARDMENT (Photo by N. J. Boon.)

BELGIANS BEFORE ANTWERP PREPARING A ROAD SNARE FOR GERMAN CAVALRY. (Photos (C) by International News Service.)