The Unusual in Boudoir Apparel

The "robes intimes" originated by this shop are designed to merge with a woman's mood during her leisure hour. They are quite different from the usual commonplace types, often daring in color scheme and treatment, yet always tempered with refinement.

The "Niente" Negligee

Daintily Charming.

The short-fronted little jacquette develops at the back into a prolonged point and is made of soft cream lace, touched here and there with rosebuds. The high collar, rosette and streamers make for certain distinction. The skirt of graceful line is of box-plaited crepe de chine.

THE CAP is fine net, crowned with maline lace and French rosebuds and is encircled with streamers of moire ribbon. 2.95

THE SLIPPERS are of heavy satin with a shirring of lace at the instep, edged with roses. 3.50

MEN like Yuban. It has just the flavor and strength they like. It was originally chosen, from all the coffees of the world, by the members of the Arbuckle firm for their own use.

For years they sent Yuban as a gift coffee to their business associates and friends.

Its success as a gift coffee was duplicated the moment it was offered the public—at last men could have in their own home a coffee as good—even better—than the best they enjoyed at their clubs and hotels.
