

REFUGEES IN FLIGHT FROM ANTWERP BEFORE THE BOMBARDMENT JAMMING THE CITY'S WATER FRONT ON THE SCHELDT.

ANTWERP REFUGEES CONVEYING BABIES DOWN THE STEEP DOCK SIDE to One of the Last Boats to Leave Before the Bombardment. (Photos (C) 1914 by New York Times Company.)

HELPING A TIMID BUT FLEEING ANTWERP MATRON DOWN THE STEEP GANGWAY. The Dog Is Interested, but Alone Not Worried.

NUNS AND OTHER FLEEING ANTWERP RESIDENTS GATHERING AT THE QUAYSIDE.

BRITISH DESTROYER ESCORTING AN ANTWERP REFUGEE SHIP OUT TO SEA. (Photos by Underwood & Underwood.)