

BELGIAN ARMY IN RETREAT FROM ANTWERP
A Trainload of Infantry and the Belgian Cavalry Accidentally Meeting at the Maldegem Crossing Near Bruges

CHILD'S CRIB HANGING FROM THE THIRD FLOOR OF A DWELLING at the Corner of the Trois Rois and La Rue Turst, Antwerp, Which Had Been Struck by a Shell during the Bombardment

WOUNDED SOLDIERS ON THE JETTY AT OSTEND AWAITING TRANSPORTATION TO ENGLAND
(Photos (C) by Underwood & Underwood.)

ANTWERP REFUGEES CAMPING IN THE WOODS ON THEIR FLIGHT TO HOLLAND
(Photo (C) by American Press Assn.)

BELGIAN SOLDIERS ON THE RETREAT FROM GHENT LADLING OUT SOUP IN A VI LAGE STREET