

GRAVES OF FRENCH AND GERMAN SOLDIERS SIDE BY SIDE IN NORTHERN FRANCE

Hier ruhen
deutsche, französische
Soldaten,
die für ihr Vaterland
starben.
Sei getreu bis an den Tod
1914

The Inscription, Translated, Reads: "Here Rests German and French Soldiers Who Died for Their Country. Be True Unto Death."

(Photo from Paul Thompson.)

(Photo by Photochek, Berlin.)

Captured Battleflags Now Trophies of War In the Berlin Military Museum, Including Russian Standards, On the Left, and French, On the Right.

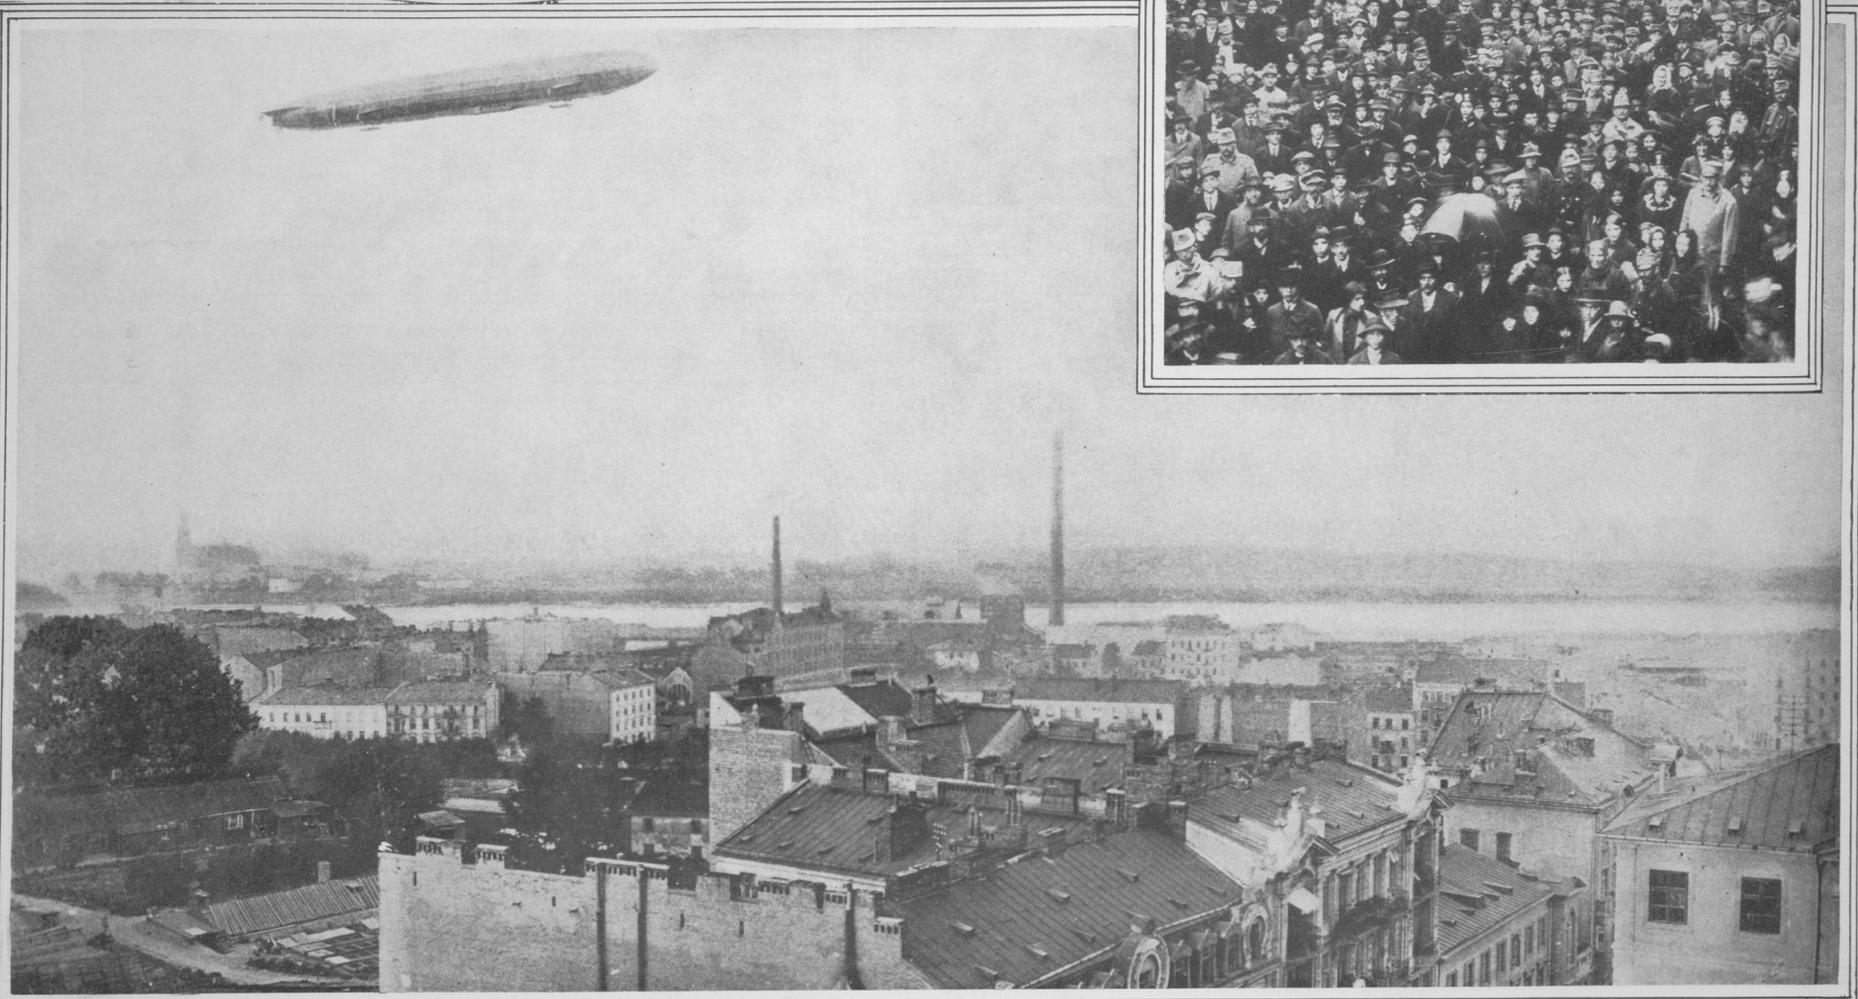

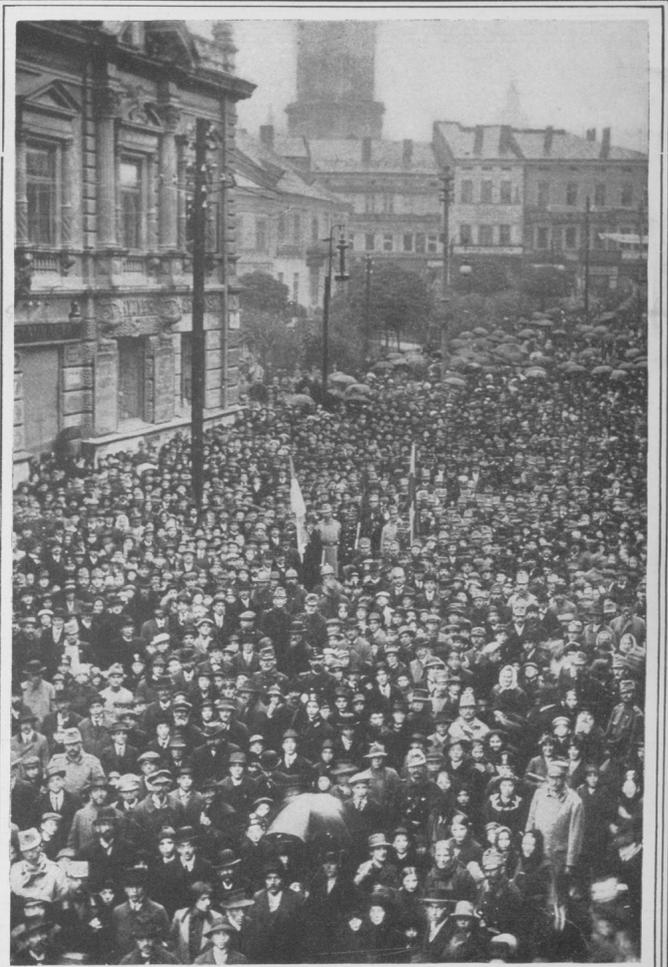

TURCO PRISONERS OF WAR IN GERMANY

(Photo (C) by American Press Assn.)

Brought From the Battleline Between Nieuport and Dixmude.

Przemysl
Throngs Assembled for the Jubilee Celebration to the Commander of the Town Fortress On the Raising of the Siege.

(Photo by Paul Thompson.)

A ZEPPELIN AIRSCOUT FLYING OVER WARSAW IN ADVANCE OF THE PRESENT GERMAN CAMPAIGN (Photo (C) by Underwood & Underwood.)