CURRENT HISTORY OF THE EUROPEAN WAR

PUBLISHED SEMI-MONTHLY AT 25 CENTS A COPY, 50 CENTS A MONTH.
$6.00 A YEAR, POSTPAID.

THIS magazine, which The New York Times issues in response to a general demand for the current publication in extended and permanent form of the vital and essential records of the greatest war in the history of the world, keeps the intelligent followers of the world's affairs in authoritative touch with the past and the progress of this titanic struggle. During the continuance of the war, it will be a practical necessity for all persons who are following the great catastrophe at all seriously.

In addition to its current interest and importance, it will also become a permanent record of the documents and official utterances of all the nations involved and of their rulers; also of the more notable public utterances by men of influence in all lands; also of all notable writings about the war.

It will carry in detail many important documents and utterances which have appeared necessarily in part in the daily press.

Each number will have more than two hundred pages and will contain portraits in rich, brown rotogravure of men distinguished as participants in the European War and as authors of speeches, documents, and articles appearing in the magazines.

For Historical Completeness, One Should Begin With the First Issue, December 12, 1914.
