

THE FAMOUS PIPE SENT BY THE GERMAN CROWN PRINCE TO EVERY MAN OF HIS COMMAND as a Christmas Memento, Following, He Explained, the Precedent Set by His Grandfather, Then Crown Prince Frederick William, in 1870, When the German Armies Also Spent Christmas in France

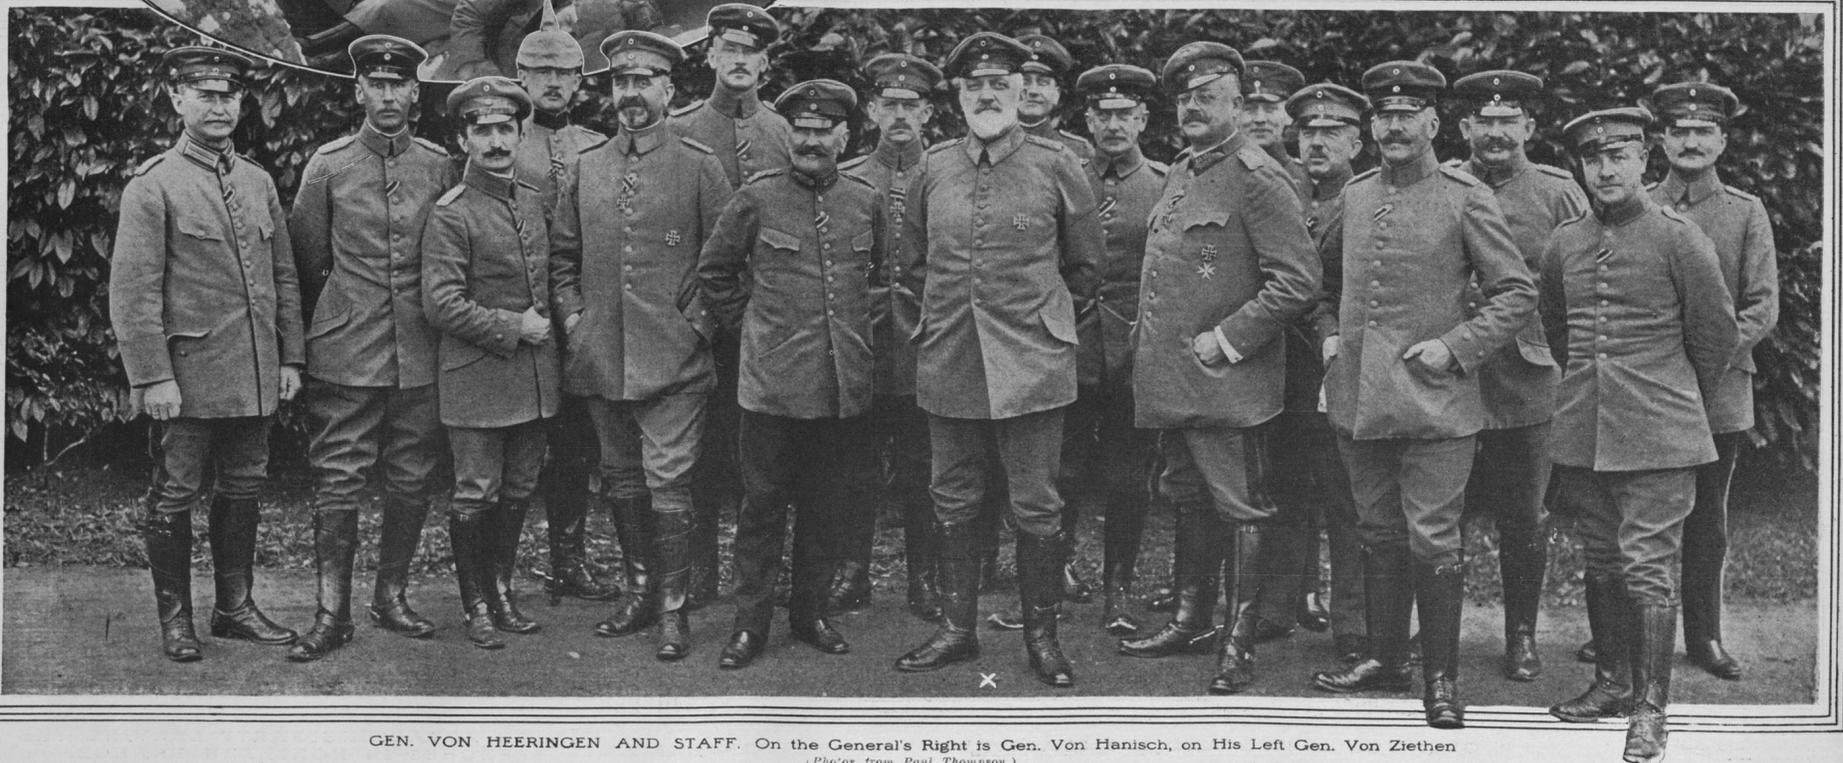

WIFE AND CHILDREN OF PRIVATE WILLIAM LONSDALE, LEEDS, ENGLAND, Who as a Prisoner of War in Germany Was Ordered Shot for Striking a German Officer, and for Whom Lonsdale's Wife Appealed to the American Minister, Dr. Henry van Dyke

BRITISH SAILORS INTERNED IN HOLLAND GET UP A MUSICAL (Photos © by International News Service.)

German Soldiers Resting in a Rifle Pit Near Darkehmen, East Prussia, After a Hard Fight

GEN. VON HEERINGEN AND STAFF. On the General's Right is Gen. Von Hanisch, on His Left Gen. Von Ziethen (Photos from Paul Thompson.)