

GERMAN MILITARY DEMONSTRATION BEFORE A CHURCH NEAR RHEIMS IN HONOR OF THE KAISER'S BIRTHDAY.

H. R. H. Princess Augustus William, Wife of the Kaiser's Fourth Son, and a Friend, Leaving the Berlin Cathedral After Thanksgiving Services Held to Celebrate German Victories in Poland and East Prussia.

THE "DAUGHTER OF THE REGIMENT," With Kitchener's New Army on Hampstead Heath, Receiving Her First Lesson in Signaling.

FIELD MARSHAL COUNT GOTTLIEB VON HAESLER, in Active Service in the German Army Despite His Seventy-nine Years, Saluted by Bavarian Soldiers at a Reception Given in His Honor.

(Photos by Paul Thompson.)

INHABITANTS OF SOCHACZEW, A POLISH TOWN NEAR WARSAW, RETURN TO FIND THEIR HOME IN RUINS. (Photo by R. Sennecke, Berlin.)

ENTRANCE TO THE TOWN OF CLERMONT, IN THE ARGONNE, IN RUINS FROM THE BOMBARDMENT OF THE CONTENDING ARMIES. (Photos by Underwood & Underwood.)