

REMARKABLE PHOTOGRAPH, ASSERTED TO HAVE BEEN TAKEN BY PRINCE WILLIAM OF HOHENZOLLERN, OF A CRUCIFIX ON A HIGHWAY NEAR SAARBURG, LORRAINE, LEFT STANDING AFTER THE CROSS HAD BEEN DESTROYED BY SHELLS.
(Photo from H. Hoffmann, Munich, To Press Illustrating Company.)

THE GERMAN EMPEROR ENJOYING A LAUGH WITH GEN. VON EINEM IN THE MARKET PLACE OF VOUZIERS, FRANCE. (Photo from Henry Ruschin.)

THE DUKE OF CONNAUGHT, Governor-General of Canada, and Party Reviewing New Canadian Troops at Winnipeg.

Spikes Driven Into Cone-Shaped Pits Before the German Trenches to Prevent Rapid Advances by the Allies. (Photo by Berlin Illustrations Co., from Press Illustrating Co.)

GERMAN WOMEN OF HIGH RANK CUTTING PAPER STRIPS WITH WHICH TO MAKE HOSPITAL PILLOWS, OWING TO THE SCARCITY OF COTTON. They Are, Left to Right—Mrs. von Schwartzkopf, Countess Wedel, Miss von Kanitz, Baroness Merling, Miss von Bohlschwingh, Baroness Deuster, Mrs. von Fitzewitz, Mrs. von Lukanus. (Photo from R. Sennecke.)

GERMAN ADVANCE GUARD MARCHING THROUGH KNEE-DEEP SNOW TOWARD PRZASNYSZ, RUSSIAN POLAND. (Photos from International News Service.)