

German Soldiers, Discovering an Enormous Cave in the Chalk Hills of France, Are Using It as Permanent Quarters. Partitioned Off, it is Housing 600 Men, and is Large Enough to Accommodate 1,000 if Necessary.

(Photo © by Brown & Dawson, from Underwood & Underwood.)

German Soldiers Having a Game of Pinochle by Moonlight on the Eastern Front.

(Photo by Photothek, Berlin.)

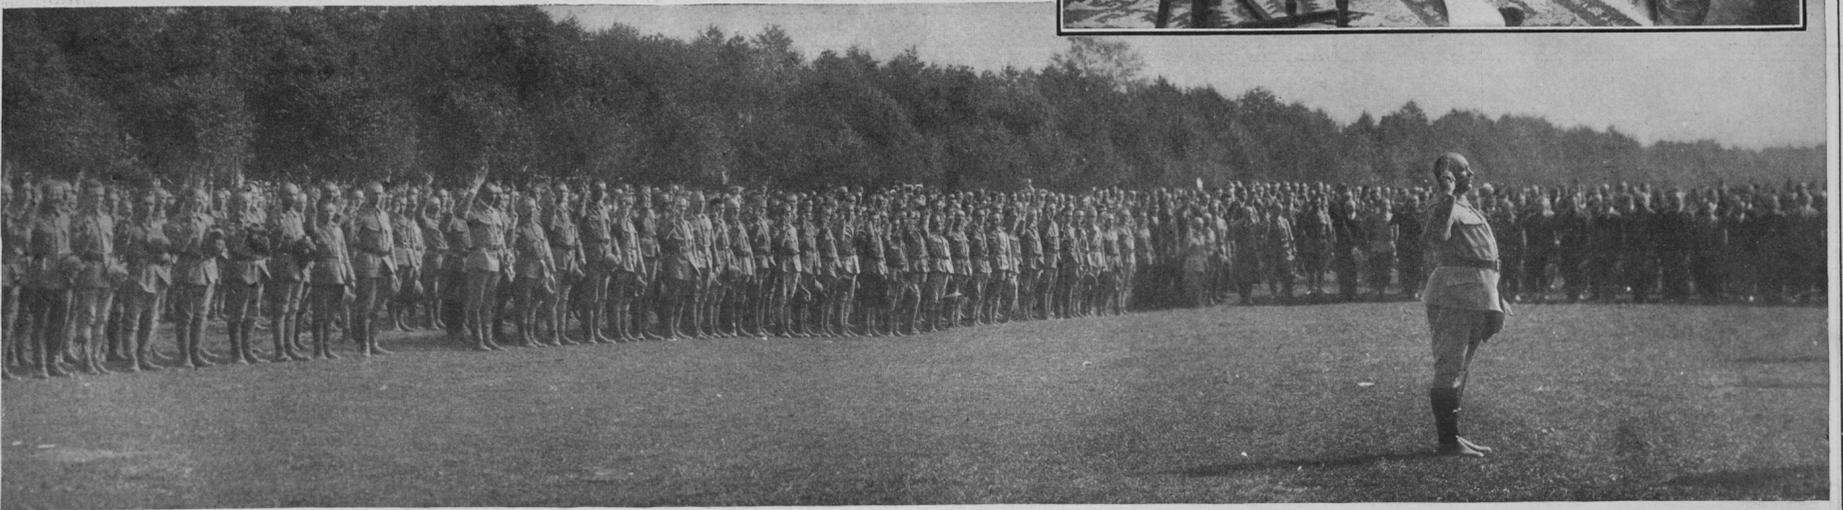

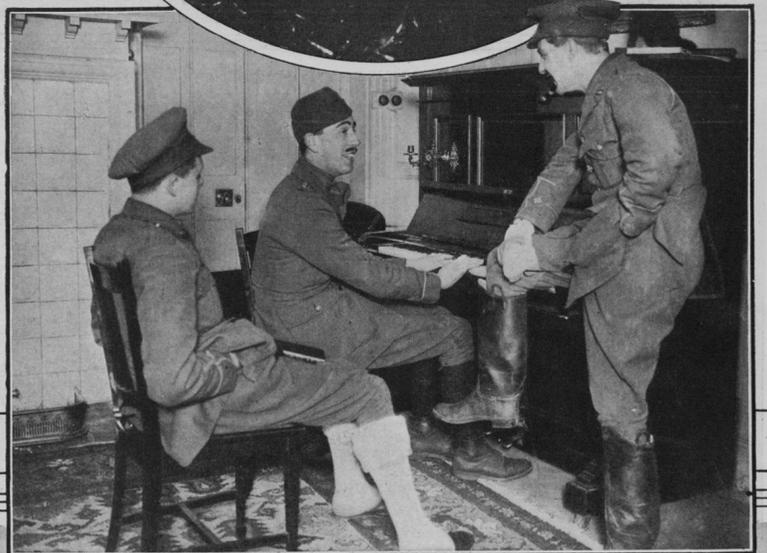

HEAD OF FRENCH INFANTRY HALTED ON A CANAL BRIDGE IN FLANDERS WHILE A BELGIAN CAVALRY TROOP PASSES IN REVIEW.

(Photos from Underwood & Underwood.)

British Officer, Recently Arrived at the Front, Plays "Sister Susie" for Two Wounded Comrades.

(Photo © by American Press Assn.)

THE POLISH LEGION, AFFILIATED WITH THE GERMANS, TAKING THE OATH AT KIELCE, RUSSIAN POLAND.