

CARMEN SYLVA,
DOWAGER QUEEN OF RUMANIA A New Photograph.
(Photo by Paul Thomson.)

VINCENT ASTOR, ON THE RIGHT, INSPECTING HIS
NEW $14,000 BURGESS-DUNNE FLYING
BOAT AT MARBLEHEAD, MASS.
The Cabin, Seating Three Persons Comfortably,
Is Luxuriously Appointed.
(Photo © by Underwood & Underwood.)

MAYOR WILLIAM HALE THOMPSON OF CHICAGO WITNESSING A
"PROSPERITY PARADE" IN HONOR OF HIS ELECTION.
(Photo by International News Service.)

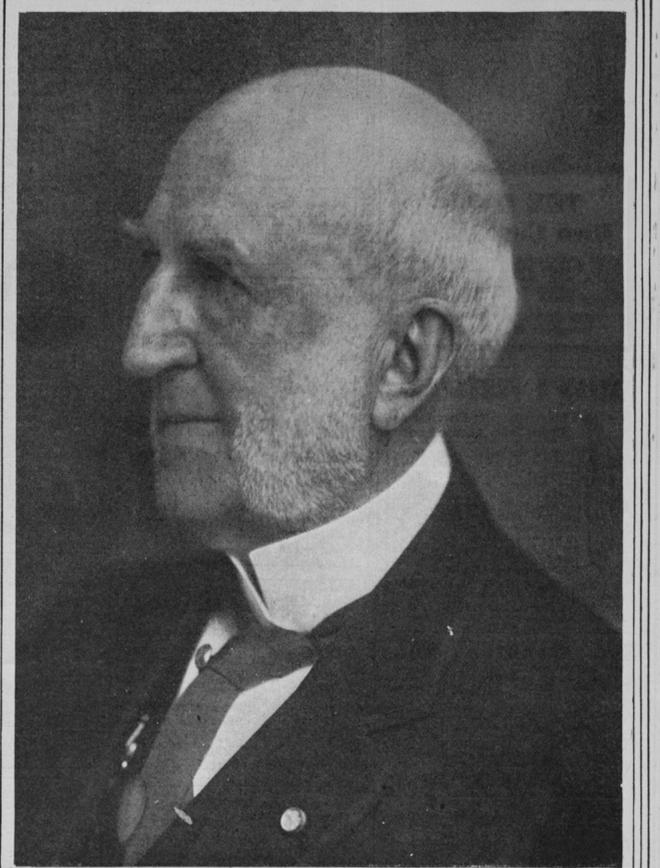

SCULPTURED GROUP BY LOUIS URICH, AWARDED FIRST PRIZE IN THE
"YOUNG ARTISTS" CONTEST ON THE THEME "WAR."

The Main Figure, Victory, on Horseback, Is Pressed Close by Death, Whose Arm, Grasping a Torch, Is Extended to Seize the Leader. From Beneath Them Stretches Out a Great Grasping Hand, Ahead of Them Is Life, Typified by a Kneeling Mother with Her Child. The Figures of Mourning Relieve the Four Corners of the Pedestal.

(Photo by W. Burden Starr.)

GIRLS OF THE GARDNER FIFTH AVENUE SCHOOL IN THE GREEK PLAY "ACHILLES IN SCYROS,"
BY ROBERT BRIDGES, POET-LAUREATE OF ENGLAND, FOR THE SUNSHINE CHAPEL.
They Are, Left to Right—Misses Ethel Chard, Lavinia Henry, Dorothy Sauer, Betty Barnes, Marjorie Stralem, Isabelle Foye, Virginia Cotton, Margaret Case, Susie Lovejoy.

EX-SENATOR CHAUNCEY M. DEPEW AT EIGHTY-ONE.
From a Photograph Taken Especially for The Times on His Last Birthday, April 23.
(Photo from Pach Bros.)