

THE GULFLIGHT SETTLING FORWARD AFTER SHE HAD BEEN TORPEDOED BY A GERMAN SUBMARINE OFF THE SCILLY ISLANDS.

(Photos © by Underwood & Underwood.)

The Crew of the Gulflight on Board the British Patrol Boat Iago Entering Crow Sound, Scilly Islands, After Their Rescue.

Captain Weddigen of the German Submarine U-29 and His Wife. He Perished with His Crew in the North Sea.

(Photo by Press Illustrating Co.)

(Photo from Henry Ruschin.)

GRAND ADMIRAL VON TIRPITZ, Chief of the German Admiralty, Who Is Credited With the Suggestion of the German Submarine Warfare

THE KAISER, THE CROWN PRINCE AND PRINCE OSCAR (Extreme Right) NEAR THE CROWN PRINCE'S HEAD-QUARTERS IN FRANCE.