

THE BRIDE OF MAJOR WALKER-LEIGH OF THE BRITISH ROYAL FUSILIERS, FORMERLY MISS MIRIAM CLEMENTS, CUTTING THE WEDDING CAKE WITH THE BRIDEGROOM'S SWORD. (Photo from American Press Assn.)

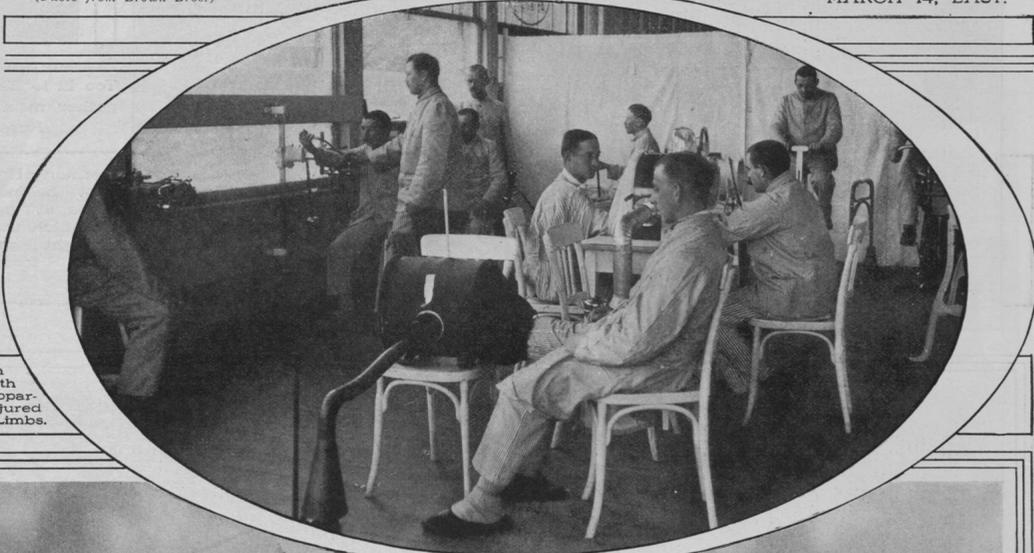

A FRENCH NON-COMMISSIONED OFFICER AND HIS BRITISH ALLY, AT THE FRONT IN NORTHERN FRANCE, READING A COPY OF THE PICTURE SECTION OF THE TIMES OF SUNDAY, MARCH 14, LAST. (Photo from Brown Bros.)

ARCHDUKE KARL FRANZ JOSEF, HEIR TO THE AUSTRIAN THRONE, IN CONVERSATION WITH TWO GERMAN OFFICERS OF AN AVIATION DIVISION WHO HAVE JUST BEEN DECORATED. (Photo from Underwood & Underwood.)

Room in One of the Berlin War Hospitals Equipped With Every Known Mechanical Apparatus for Restoring Life to Injured Fingers, Hands, Feet and Limbs.

THE MASONRY OF THE FORT AT MANONVILLIER, FRANCE, CRUMPLED BY GERMAN SHELLS. (Photo from Underwood & Underwood.)