

The Lord Bishop Cloynes Conducting the Burial Service Over the Graves of the Lusitania Victims in the Catholic Cemetery at Queenstown.

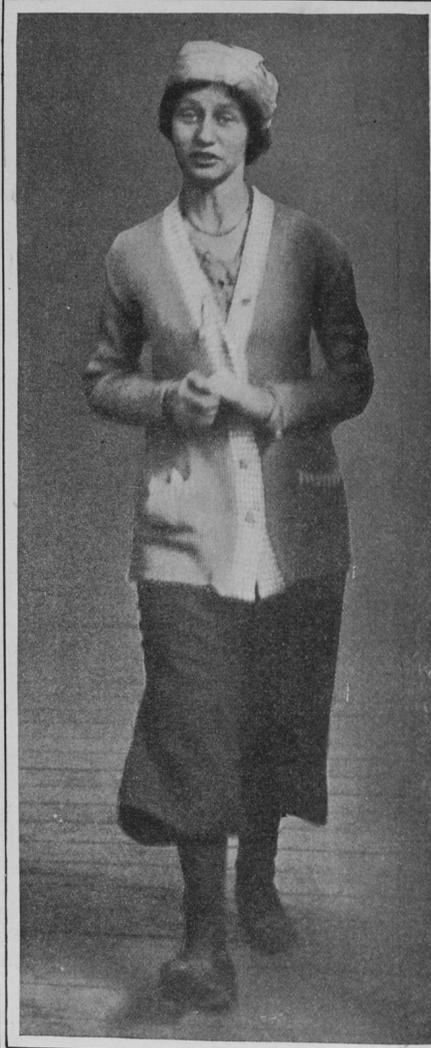

Julian de Avala, the Cuban Consul General at Liverpool, a Lusitania Survivor, Surrounded by Admirers at Queenstown.

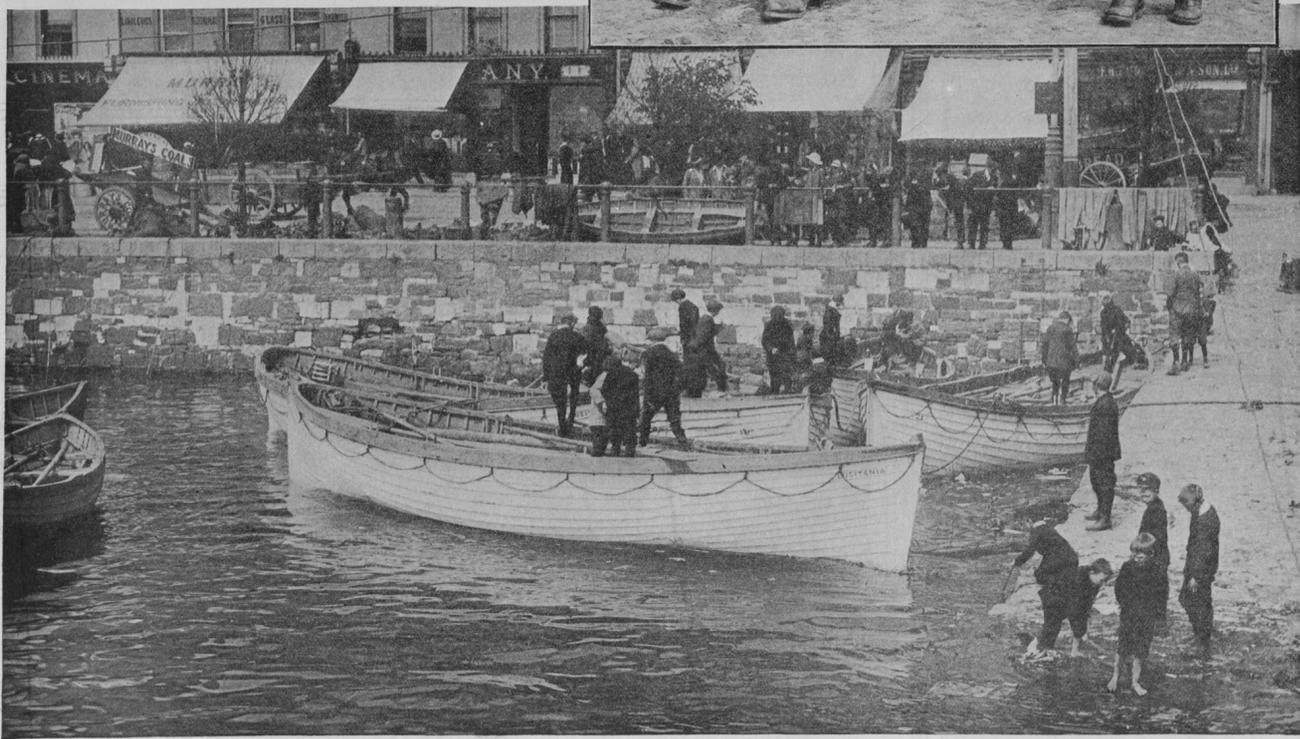

Mother and Her Children Among the Rescued.

CHILD VICTIMS IN THE MORGUE AT QUEENSTOWN, ONE LYING IN ITS MOTHER'S ARMS. (Photos © by International News Service.)

KATHLEEN KAYE, AGED 15, OF TORONTO, Called the "Heroine of the Lusitania," Having Rowed in One of the Lifeboats and Aided in Many Rescues. (Photos © by Underwood & Underwood.)

THE LUSITANIA'S LIFEBOATS, IN WHICH MOST OF THE SURVIVORS ESCAPED, LYING WHERE THEY WERE LANDED AT QUEENSTOWN. (Photos from American Press Assn.)