

SYDNEY TURNS OUT TO WAVE FAREWELL TO THE AUSTRALIAN LIGHT HORSE, OFF TO THE WAR IN EUROPE.
(Photo from Doubleday, Page & Co.)

Portrait of Gen. Joffre, Painted at the Front by the French Artist, Henry Jacquier, and Now on Exhibition at the "Salon of France in Arms," Paris.

PRESIDENT POINCARE Visiting the "Salon of France in Arms." The Paintings Shown Having Been Painted at the Front by French Artists, Many of Whom Have Since Been Killed or Captured.

Photos Underwood & Underwood.)

Wounded British Officers Convalescing in the Home of Ex-King Manuel at Brighton. A Photograph of the Exiled Ruler of Portugal May Be Seen on the Mantel.

KING GEORGE V. OF ENGLAND INSPECTING NEW SCOTTISH TROOPS ON HIS RECENT VISIT TO GLASGOW.
(Photo from American Press Assn.)