

Members of the American Colony Still in Berlin Gathered About United States Ambassador and Mrs. James W. Gerard (Right Centre) and the American Consul General, Julius G. Day, in the Grounds of the Hotel Esplanade, Berlin, for the Celebration of the Fourth of July.
From a photograph which reached this country only a week ago, owing to the war's delay of the mails from the German capital.

(Photo by Paul Thompson.)

Miss Ellen Yuille, Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Yuille, Whose Wedding to William Sturgis Has Been Announced to Take Place in the Fall at the Yuille Camp Near Durham, N. C.
From a new and hitherto unpublished photograph.

(Photo by Marceau.)

Lord Richard Plantagenet Newill, on Behalf of King George V. of Great Britain, Presenting to President Moore of the Panama Exposition the Yacht Cup, Principal Trophy to Be Given at the International Yacht Races to Be Held at the Exposition.
(Photos from International News Service.)

Major General Hugh L. Scott, Chief of Staff, United States Army, Who Has Gone to the Mexican Border to Play the Role of Peacemaker Among the Various Warring Factions.

JUNIUS SPENCER MORGAN, SON OF J. PIERPONT MORGAN, AND BRIDE, FORMERLY MISS LOUISE CONVERSE, AT THE PANAMA EXPOSITION ON THEIR HONEYMOON.