

GENERAL JOFFRE AND GENERAL MAUD'HUY, SPENDING THE FOURTEENTH OF JULY IN A RECONQUERED ALSATIAN VILLAGE, WERE WELCOMED BY THE ENTIRE POPULATION, HEADED BY LITTLE GIRLS IN FESTIVE COSTUMES.

LITTLE PARIS FLOWER GIRL PRESENTING A BOUQUET TO A FRENCH SOLDIER ON LEAVE.
(Photos from Underwood & Underwood.)

Princess August Wilhelm, Daughter-in-Law of the German Emperor, Dedicating a Building in Berlin for the Use of the Soldiers Blinded by Their Wounds.
(Photo from Ruschin.)

BRITISH SOLDIER, CRIPPLED IN THE WAR AND NOW IN THE HOME FOR CRIPPLED CHILDREN, TEACHING THE BOYS HOW TO DRILL.

CHILDREN OF KOENIGSBURG, LARGEST GERMAN CITY ON THE RUSSIAN BORDER, CULTIVATING EVERY FOOT OF VACANT SPACE TO HELP IN FEEDING THE PEOPLE AND THE ARMIES OF GERMANY.