

THE HARVEST IN NORTHERN FRANCE.

Wounded French Soldier Reading a Poem of His Composition to Cardinal Amette, a Visitor to the Brothers of St. Jean De Dieu That He Might Decorate Gallant French Officers.
 (Photo © International News Service.)

KING VICTOR EMMANUEL III OF ITALY (CENTRAL BACKGROUND) AT THE FRONT WITH HIS MEN.

(Photos from Medem)

German Soldiers Dedicating a Monument at Wloclowek, Near Warsaw, to Celebrate Their Victories Over the Russians, Using for the Salutes Cannon Captured From the Czar's Fleeting Troops.
 (Photo by Berlin Illustrations.)

YOUNG GIRLS, FLOWER-LADEN, LEADING A PROCESSION ON THE FIRST ANNIVERSARY OF THE BATTLE OF HAELEN, BELGIUM, ON AUGUST 11, 1914, TO DECORATE THE GRAVES OF THE BELGIAN SOLDIERS KILLED IN THAT ENGAGEMENT.
 (Photo from Underwood & Underwood.)