

THREE THOUSAND SEE THE FOLK DANCING AT THE FESTIVAL AND BARBECUE GIVEN ON THE LAWN OF MR. AND MRS. JAMES J. STORROW'S COUNTRY HOME, LINCOLN, MASS., TO AID THE NATIONAL ALLIED WAR RELIEF FUND. Mrs. Storrow, the Hostess, a Sister of Thomas Mott Osborne, Prison Reformer and Warden of Sing Sing, Is the Dancer in the Right Foreground. (Photos by Thomas E. Marr & Son.)

READY TO SERVE THE TWO BEEVES ROASTED WHOLE, AFTER THE MANNER OF ENGLISH FEUDAL TIMES, TO THE GUESTS AT THE STORROW BARBECUE. Sig. Louis Arigoni, the Chef, Knife in Hand, Can Be Seen on the Left.

REAR ADMIRAL ROBERT E. PEARY, DISCOVERER OF THE NORTH POLE, Ready to Make His First Aeroplane Flight, in Which He Ascended to a Height of 1,200 Feet Over Long Beach, L. I., When the Engines Stopped and Aviator Burnside, the Pilot, Had to Volplane to Earth to Save His Famous Passenger. (Photo © American Press Assn.)

MISS HOPE WILLIAMS, Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Waldron Williams, Who Is to Be Presented This Season. (Photo by Ira L. Hill's Studio.)

SCENE FROM THE PAGEANT OF "ATHENA," GIVEN BY VASSAR STUDENTS AT THE INAUGURATION OF DR. HENRY NOBLE MacCRACKEN AS PRESIDENT OF VASSAR COLLEGE. (Photo © by E. L. Wolven.)