"Just Because I never took the trouble to investigate 'ACOUSTICON' I suffered the hardships of the DEAF"

FREE TRIAL—NO DEPOSIT—JUST SEND POSTAL

"Just think, only three weeks ago I sent that postal—three weeks ago you would have had to shout to make me hear you across the library table—Now I can hear your lowest whisper distinctly.

"Down at the office I actually heard Miss Brown's low voiced murmur for the first time in years.

"And last night I enjoyed every word of that play! Three weeks ago I would have been bored stiff at the theatre—couldn't have heard a single word. But all that's over—now I hear perfectly."

This advertisement was written by users of the "ACOUSTICON"—the words are theirs, not ours. If you are hard of hearing we will gladly send you an instrument for ten days' free trial. Could anything be fairer? or show more strongly our confidence in the "ACOUSTICON"?

If you are hard of hearing—write us to-day—let us send you "Evidence"—a postal card will do.
