

TWO OF THE NEW AUSTRIAN 15 CM. MORTARS, HALF BURIED IN SOIL AND UNDERGROWTH, BLASTING A WAY THROUGH SERBIA.

(Photos from Underwood & Underwood.)

ITALY PROVIDING OPEN AIR SCHOOLS FOR THE ORPHANS OF SOLDIERS KILLED IN THE WAR.

French War Orphans at the Railway Station at Lyon, About to be Sent to Cannes, on the Mediterranean, for the Winter.
(Photos from Medem Photo Service.)

Due to the War Shortage of Men on English Farms, Girls in Knickerbockers Gather Damsons to be Used in Making the Blue Carpet Dyes Usually Obtained from Germany.

RUSSIAN SOLDIERS, WITH RIFLES STACKED, RESTING IN A FLOWER GARDEN UNDER THE TREES AFTER A LONG MARCH.

(Photo from American Press Assn.)