

KING, HARVARD'S RIGHT HALF BACK, MAKING A GAIN OF SIX YARDS FROM A FEIGNED KICK FORMATION IN HARVARD'S TRIUMPHANT GAME WITH YALE AT CAMBRIDGE.
(Photo © by Underwood & Underwood.)

(Photo © Medem.)

French Girls Visit the Grave of Their Soldier-Father in the Churchyard of Sermaise, in Marne, on the Anniversary of His Death.

ANDREW CARNEGIE AT EIGHTY.
From a photograph taken a few days ago in Mr. Carnegie's study especially for The Times. With him is his favorite collie.
(Photo © by The New York Times.)

MISS MARIAN THATCHER FEUSTMAN AND MISS CHARLOTTE FOXWELL WERNER, In the Costume in Which They Are to Appear in the Fete de Vanite for Charity on Next Wednesday Evening.

FRENCH SOLDIER AND A TEACHER CONDUCTING CHILDREN FROM ALSACE AND LORRAINE INTO FRANCE TO BE TAUGHT THE FRENCH LANGUAGE.
(Photos from Medem Photo Service.)