Bossert Redibill Homes

"Not Even a Nail to Buy"

Homes put up by the "Redibill" unit method have all the strength of ship carpentry. Each unit is made entirely by machinery, and while being more exact in fit and finish than hand work, effects a great saving over the ordinary building methods. All units have our exclusive feature of air-chamber insulation—and may be secured in clap-board, shingle or stucco finish. In fact, any style of architectural finish the owner desires may be obtained by this method. Our 1915 catalogue is just off the press. It contains many new and artistic designs. Write for a copy.
