

THE CASCADES, THE WORLD'S LARGEST STEEL DREDGE, Removing the Last Vestige of the Island Which Formed in the Middle of the Panama Canal from the Gold Hill Slide.
(Photo from American Press Assn.)

RALPH COFFIN, A MEMBER OF THE WASHINGTON RIDING CLUB, JUMPING HIS MOUNT, "RABBIT," OVER AN AUTOMOBILE IN WHICH ARE SEATED Sylvanus Stokes, Jr., Thomas Morgan, Jr., Miss Ruth Hitchcock, Miss Scott, Daughter of General Hugh L. Scott, and Mrs. W. Sinclair Bowen. The Washington Monument Can be Seen in the Background.
(Photo by G. V. Buck, Washington, from American Press Assn.)

MISS MARGARET CLARKSON HENDERSON, Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Henderson, Whose Engagement to Otis L. Guernsey, Member of the Yale Football Team, Has Been Announced.
(Photo by Davis & Sanford.)

MRS. JAMES LEES LAIDLAW MAKING THE ADDRESS At the Opening of the New Fifth Avenue Suffrage Headquarters, with Mrs. Edgerton Parsons Presiding.
(Photo from Janet M. Cummings.)

JUDGE FRANKLIN CHASE HOYT, PRESIDING JUSTICE OF THE CHILDREN'S COURT, Hearing a Case in "The Heart of the Court," a Second Courtroom in the New Children's Courthouse, So Called Because the Hearings Are More Like Heart-to-Heart Talks Between the Judge and the Boys Than Formal Trials. Two Probation Officers Are the Only Other Persons Present.
(Photo by Jessie Tarbox Beals, Inc.)