

"QUEENSBORO BRIDGE"—BY ERNEST LAWSON.
From the Current Exhibition by This Artist at the Daniel Gallery.

Lady Loughborough, Bride of Lord Loughborough of England, Heir of the Earl of Roslyn, in Cairo, Egypt, Where the Wedding Took Place. She Was Formerly Miss Sheila Christholm, an Austral'ian Heiress.
(Photo (C) by International Film Service.)

MRS. PHILIP G.
McFADDEN.
From a recent photograph.

(Photo by Heywood Studios.)

The Marquess of Granby, Son and Heir of the Duke of Rutland, and His Bride, Formerly Miss Kathleen Tennant, Niece of Prime Minister Asquith and of Lord Glenconner, Leaving St. Margaret's, Westminster, After Their Marriage. The Little Page Is a Brother of the Bride.
(Photo from J. M. Cummings.)

TEA MAIDENS IN "AN AFTERNOON IN JAPAN," GIVEN FOR CHARITY AT CORONADO BEACH.
They are, left to right: Mrs. H. Cleland de Neale, Baltimore; Miss Doris Shaw, Chicago; Miss Marian Baillie, Seattle; Miss Dorcas Surth, New York; Miss Katharine Gerber, Pittsburgh, and Miss Dorothy Stonehill, Chicago.

EMMY WEHLEN, the Actress, as "Mollie Pepper" in Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont's Suffrage Operetta.
(Photos by Underwood & Underwood.)