

MEMBERS OF THE PALM BEACH WINTER COLONY POSING FOR THE "MOVIE" PLAY, "THE ISLE OF HAPPINESS," TO BE SHOWN THIS EVENING IN THE DINING ROOM OF THE ROYAL POINCIANA FOR THE FIRST AND ONLY TIME, AFTER WHICH THE FILMS WILL BE DESTROYED.

J. R. Hyde of New York, the Hero, Is Here Shown Persuading Mrs. Gurnee Munn, Granddaughter of John Wanamaker, the Heroine, to Fly with Him in a Hydroaeroplane.

Mrs. Gurnee Munn, the Heroine, Posing as Flirting with the Owner of a Motor Car, Hoping to be Invited for a Ride so She May Leave J. R. Hyde, the Hero, by the Roadside.

DANCING ON THE HOTEL VERANDA AT PALM BEACH WHEN THE BATHING HOUR IS OVER.
(Photos © by Underwood & Underwood.)

Miss Rosamond Lancaster, Boston, as a "Movie" Actress, Dancing the "Tango" at the Dinner Party at Which the Engagement of the Hero and Heroine in the "Isle of Happiness" Is Announced.

GERMANS IN RUSSIAN POLAND USING LONG WAGON TRAINS FOR OBTAINING FIREWOOD FOR THEIR CAMPS AND HUTS.
(Photo from Feature Photo Service.)