

GREAT CROWDS ATTENDING THE NATIONAL FUNERAL ACCORDED THE VICTIMS OF THE RECENT ZEPPELIN RAIDS ON PARIS. (Photo from Medem Photo Service.)

British Officer Discussing Boarding Terms With a Greek Country Woman Near Saloniki.

(Photo from Paul Thompson.)

STONE BARRACKS WHICH HAVE BEEN ERECTED FOR THE ITALIAN ALPINI HIGH UP ON THE SIDES OF THE DOLOMITES.

(Photo from Berliner Illustrations.)

FRAULEIN DOLENSKY, A Bohemian Girl Who Donned Some of Her Brother's Clothes and Became a Chimney Sweep When All the Men Went Off to the War.

HOW THE BRITISH LEFT GALLIPOLI. Soldiers, Concealing a Big Gun With Their Bodies, are Removing It in Broad Daylight From Its Position on Land to a Transport in Suvla Bay. (Photos © by American Press Assn.)