

LITTLE JOHN JACOB ASTOR, NOW WITH HIS MOTHER AT AIKEN, S. C., TAKING THREE OF HIS FRIENDS OUT FOR A RIDE IN HIS ONE-BOY POWER PUSHMOBILE. His Little Guests Are William Post, Margaret Emmet, and Gifford Cochran, Jr. (Photo © by International News Service.)

Sir Herbert Tree as Cardinal Wolsey in "Henry VIII.", with Which His Series of Shakespearean Productions in New York Will Be Opened This Week.

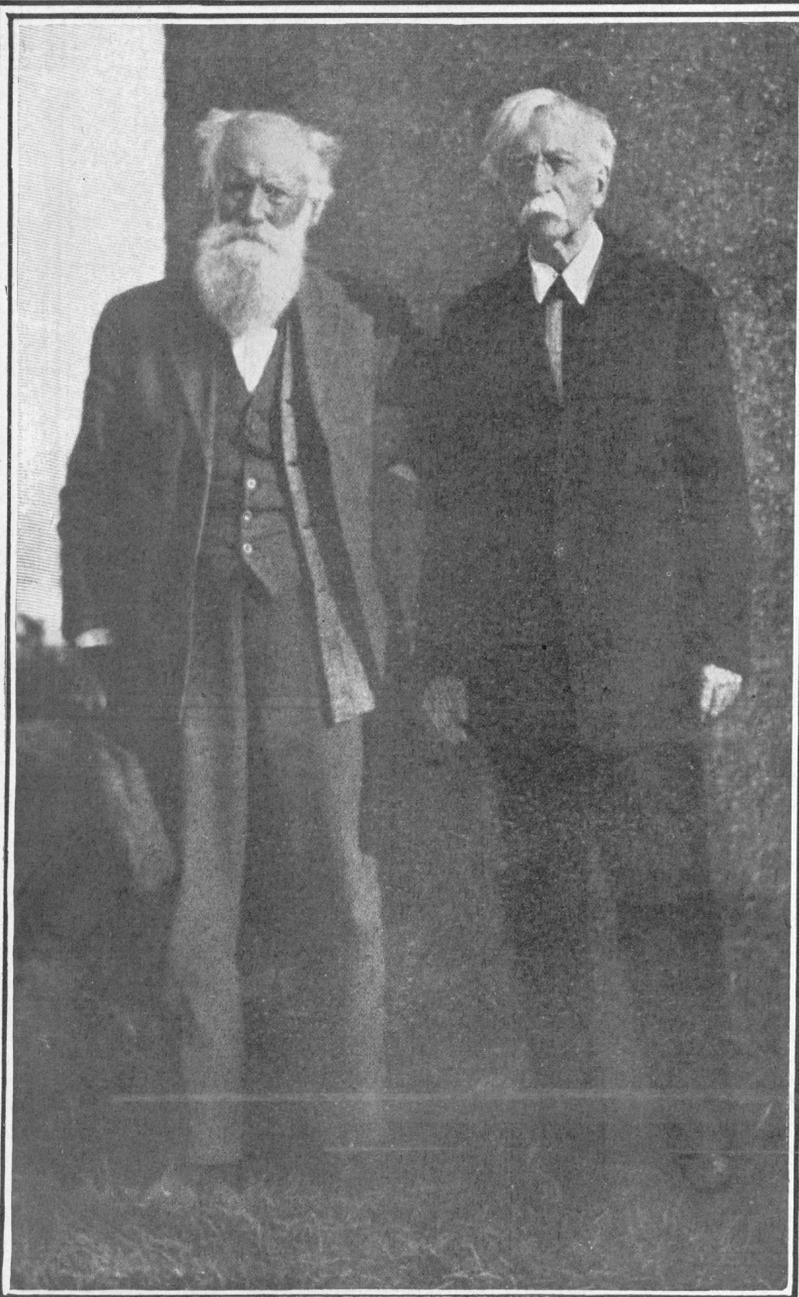

(Photo © by Burford.)

MISS FREDERIKA PETERSON In the "Ballet Charlotte Russe" Given for the Benefit of the Stony Wold Sanatorium. (Photo by White Studio.)

VIRGINIA WILLYS, LITTLE DAUGHTER OF MR. AND MRS. JOHN N. WILLYS. From a Portrait by Wilhelm Funk Now on Exhibition at the Reinhardt Galleries. (Photo by Hagelstein Bros.)

JOHN BURROUGHS, THE NATURALIST, AND WILLIAM WINTER, THE VETERAN AUTHOR AND DRAMATIC CRITIC, EIGHTY YEARS OLD IN JULY, IN WHOSE HONOR A PUBLIC TESTIMONIAL WILL BE GIVEN THIS WEEK. From a Photograph Taken by Orlando Rouland, the Artist.

WILHELM FUNK, THE PORTRAIT PAINTER, LEAVING HIS STUDIO. In the Background Is a Portrait of Little Herman Whiton, Recently Finished and Now On Exhibition at the Reinhardt Galleries. (Photo © by J. R. Reid.)