WILLIAM WINTER, AUTHOR AND DRAMATIC CRITIC, AND THE ACTORS AND ACTRESSES WHO TOOK PART IN THE SHAKESPEAREAN MASQUE GIVEN AT THE CENTURY THEATRE IN MR. WINTER'S HONOR.

In the Group, Left to Right, First Row, Are: Walter Hampden, Katheryn Kidder as Katharina, Eric Blind, Viola Allen as Viola, Crystal Herne as Ophelia, Brandon Tynan as Hamlet, Mrs. Sol Smith, Master Alexander Leftwich, Jr., as Prince Arthur, Mr. Winter, Rose Coghlan as Mistress Page, and Percy Haswell as Mistress Ford, Mary Lawton, and Jane Cowl as Cleopatra. Second Row: Eugene Ormonde, Ernest de Cove, Henrietta Crosman as Rosalind, Julia Arthur as Juliet, Orrin Johnson as Romeo, Annie Russell as Puck, James O'Neill as Cardinal Wolsey, and Wilton Lackaye. Last Row: Louis Kaufman Anspacher, Isabel Irving, Pedro de Cordoba, Herman Lieb, Rowland Buckstone as Launcelot Gobbo, David Bispham, Elsie Ferguson, Louis Calvert, Albert Bruning, Oswald Yorke, Mrs. Richard Mansfield, Fuller Mellish and Alice Fischer.

(Photo © by White Studio.)

KING ALFONSO XIII. OF SPAIN,
While on a Hunting Expedition, Greeting His Prime Minister, Count de Romanones, on a Dusty Country Road.

"MATERNITY"—BY GARI MELCHERS.
From the Current Exhibition of This Artist's Recent Paintings at the Montross Gallery.

MISS AGNES MITCHELL,
Niece of Mrs. John Murray Mitchell of New York, as a Participant in the Recent Sport Costume Ball at Coronado Beach.
(Photos from Underwood & Underwood.)

MISS LOUISE TREVOR IN COLONIAL COSTUME.
The Engagement of Miss Trevor, a Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Trevor, to James Couper Lord Has Been Announced.
(Photo by W. Burden Stage.)