

GIRL STUDENTS OF THE OGONTZ FINISHING SCHOOL, NEAR PHILADELPHIA, WHO ARE ALREADY PREPARED FOR WAR. This Is Said to be the Only Regiment of Girls in the United States. They Are Here Shown Passing in Review Before Colonel T. D. Landon, U. S. A., Their Military Instructor.

Willard and Moran, in the Ten-Round Bout at Madison Square Garden, Coming to a Clinch After the Exchange of Hard Blows to Body. Referee White Is Approaching to Break the Clinch. The Photograph Well Shows the Relative Sizes of the Two Men. (Photo © by International Film Service.)

MISS RENA MAITLAND, A Daring Equestrienne from Michigan, Escaping Unharmed After Having Been Unseated by Her Mount "Hato."

(Photo © by Underwood & Underwood.)

EDITH GOULD, AND HER SISTER, GLORIA Daughters of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Gould, Enjoying One of the Last of the Season's Snows. (Photo © by American Press Assn.)

SCENE ON THE GOLF COURSE AT PINEHURST, N. C., WITH SIX PLAYERS CONTESTING, FIVE OF WHOM HOLD CHAMPIONSHIP HONORS. They Are: Jesse Guilford, Manchester, N. H.; E. C. Beall, Uniontown; Philip Carter (Putting), Mason Phelps, Chicago; Charles Skehens, Woods Hole, and Franklin Dyer, Montclair. The Last Figure on the Green, at the Right, Is That of "Doc" Nelson, Official Scorekeeper. Secretary of State Robert Lansing Can be Seen on the Extreme Left. (Photo from Underwood & Underwood.)