

ARRIVAL OF A TRAINLOAD OF UNITED STATES TROOPS AT COLUMBUS, N. M., TO REINFORCE THE PUNITIVE EXPEDITION AGAINST VILLA.

(Photos © by International Film Service.)

SQUAD OF HARVARD STUDENTS, WHO HAVE ORGANIZED A MILITARY TRAINING CAMP, DRILLING OUTDOORS FOR THE FIRST TIME. (Photo © by Underwood & Underwood.)

United States Infantryman Seeking Shelter Under His Tent From the Blazing Mexican Sun.

United States Army Auto Train Rushing Supplies Across the Mexican Desert to Gen. Pershing's Command.

SECTION OF THE FIFTH CAVALRY'S WAGON TRAIN, REMINISCENT OF THE PRAIRIE SCHOONER, CONDUCTED THROUGH MEXICAN TERRITORY UNDER STRONG GUARD.

(Photos © by International Film Service.)