

(Photo © U. S. and
Canada by American
Press Assn.)

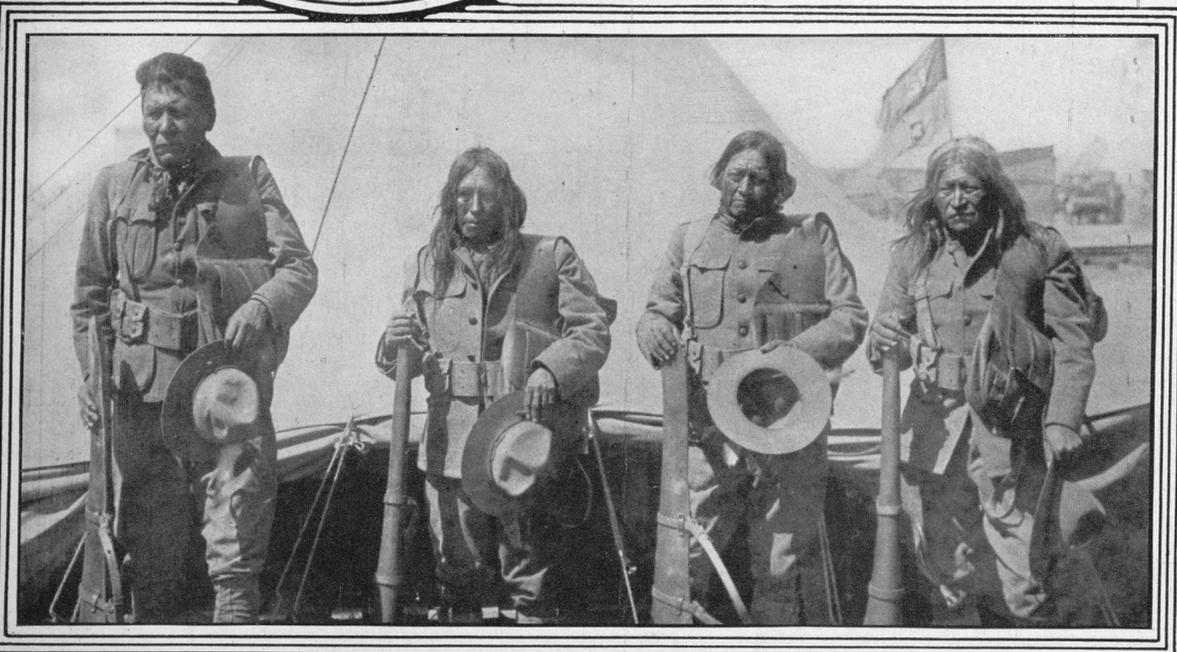

REMARKABLE PHOTOGRAPH TAKEN FROM A BRITISH AEROPLANE SHOWING GERMANS MASSES AND ATTACKING FROM BEHIND A CLOUD OF GASSES, BLOWN TOWARD THE ALLIES. SHELLS FIRED BY THE ALLIES MAY BE SEEN BURSTING WITHIN THE GERMAN LINES, WHILE IN THE BACKGROUND THE OUTSKIRTS OF A FRENCH TOWN APPEAR.

Thrilling Long-Distance Water Jump in the Recent Races at Gatwick, England, Which, on Account of the War, Replaced the Great Liverpool Steeplechase. (Photos © U. & U.)

LIEUT. C. G. CHAPMAN, U. S. A. AVIATION CORPS, LEAVING CASAS GRANDES, MEXICO, ON A SCOUTING EXPEDITION.

FAMOUS APACHE SCOUTS SENT SOUTH TO AID IN THE TRAILING AND CAPTURE OF VILLA. They Are, Left to Right: John Chas-en-Day, Who Helped Capture Geronimo; Chavi Chisskay, Yet-Su-Ay, Apache Chief, and Ska Ven-De. (Photo © by International Film Service.)

PRESIDENT AND MRS. WOODROW WILSON Leaving Continental Memorial Hall, Washington, Where the President Addressed the D. A. R. Convention. (Photo by G. V. Buck. From Underwood & Underwood.)