

SCENE FROM "AS YOU LIKE IT" PRESENTED BY THE STUDENTS OF CASTLE SCHOOL, TARRYTOWN, N. Y. Characters in the Foreground, Left to Right, Are: Miss Lee Frescinus as the First Lord; Miss Bama Adams as a Court Lady; Miss Lee Ola Shannon as Orlando; Miss Hazel Wyrick as Rosalind; Miss Alice Brown as Jaques; Miss Louise Eisenmyer as Celia; Miss Alice Rushton as Touchstone, a Clown.

(Photo by Thompson Photo Company.)

"AN UNRECORDED PROGRESS OF QUEEN ELIZABETH." The Procession in the Shakespeare Pageant at Hollins College, Hollins, Va., Winding Down the Hill From Carvin's Oak, "Forest of Arden," Led by Miss Matty L. Cocke, President of the College, as the Queen, Followed by Court Ladies, the Misses Bolling, Smith, Mayo, Julian.

INDIAN MAIDENS AS WITCHES IN THE SHAKESPEARE PAGEANT GIVEN BY THE STUDENTS OF THE CARLISLE INDIAN SCHOOL. They Are, Left to Right: Misses Lena Parker, Seneca; Elizabeth Janis, Sioux; Mary Wilmet, Ottawa; Ethel Lynd, Sioux; Evelyn Schingler, Seneca; Winnie Lajanese, Shoshone; Maude Heany, Chippewa. (Photos by International Film Ser.)

MISS DELIGHT LYND, A Sioux Indian Maiden, as "Cleopatra," in the Carlisle Indian School's Shakespeare Tercentenary Celebration.

MISS LUCILE SATTERTHWAITTE Of Asheville, N. C., One of Eleven American Girls Adjudged by Lillian Russell and William A. Brady the Most Beautiful Among Twelve Thousand Whose Photographs Were Submitted in a Motion-Picture Beauty Contest.

MOUNT HOLYOKE STUDENTS PRESENT "TWELFTH NIGHT." In the Group, Left to Right, Are: First Row, Misses Olive Sharp, Loren May Hornitkel, Jeannie Begg, Ruth Jackson, and Laura Baer. Second Row: Misses Margaret Buffum, Bertha Brown, Ruth Wills, Margaret Moffatt, Marion Haines as Viola, Myra Luce, Josephine Budd, Pauline Quigg, and Inez Smith. (Photo by White.)