

PRESIDENT WILSON FORMALLY ACCEPTING THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION IN THE PRESENCE OF TWENTY THOUSAND PEOPLE ASSEMBLED ON THE GROUNDS OF HIS SUMMER HOME, SHADOW LAWN, LONG BRANCH, N. J.
(Photo by Kollar & White.)

CHARLES E. HUGHES, REPUBLICAN NOMINEE, AND MRS. HUGHES ON A STROLL THROUGH ESTES NATIONAL PARK, COLORADO.

(Photo by Underwood & Underwood.)

(Photo © by Underwood & Underwood.)

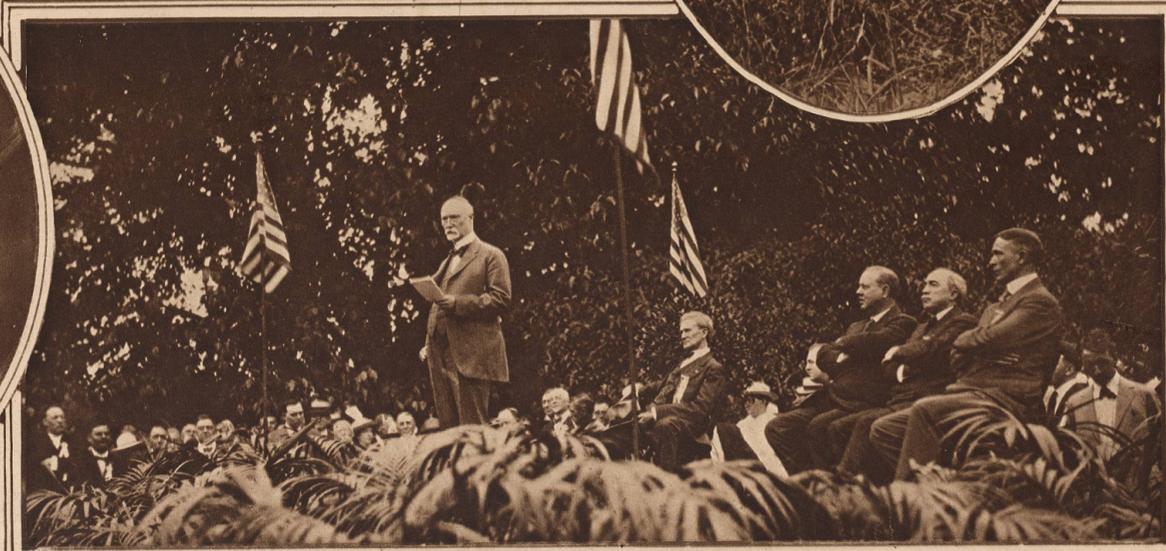

SENATOR OLLIE JAMES OF KENTUCKY MAKING THE NOTIFICATION ADDRESS ON BEHALF OF THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE.

President Wilson Had Just Received from Senator James the Official Notification. Seated Behind the President Is His Running Mate for the Second Time, Vice President Thomas R. Marshall.

(Photo © by Walter Scott Shinn.)

COL. THEODORE ROOSEVELT AND LITTLE KERMIT, JR., Son of Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Roosevelt, Formerly Miss Belle Willard, Daughter of Col. Joseph E. Willard, United States Ambassador to Spain. Kermit, Jr., Is the Colonel's Youngest Grandchild, and Was Born Last February While His Parents Were Residents of Argentina, South America.

CHARLES W. FAIRBANKS ACCEPTING THE REPUBLICAN NOMINATION FOR THE VICE PRESIDENCY ON THE LAWN OF HIS HOME AT INDIANAPOLIS. Seated, Left to Right, Are: Senator Sherman, A. T. Hert, Manager of the Republican Western Headquarters; National Chairman W. R. Willcox, and A. O. Eberhardt.
(Photo by Paul Thompson.)