

OVER THE JUMPS IN THE AUTUMN STEEPLCHASE HANDICAP, Stellar Event at the Opening of the United Hunts Meet at Belmont Park, Won by James Park's Duke of Duluth.

(Photo by Kellar & White.)

VISCOUNT MOORE AND THE LITTLE LADY PATRICIA MOORE, CHILDREN OF THE EARL OF DROGHEDA.

From a new painting by Harrington Mann, now on exhibition at the galleries of Scott & Fowles.

(Photo by Hobson & Juniel.)

AUGUST BELMONT WITH MR. AND MRS. MORGAN BELMONT.

Son and Daughter-in-Law, at Belmont Park for the United Hunts Races.

(Photos by Central News Photo Service.)

MRS. S. BRYCE WING, JR., Formerly Miss Marie Taylor, at the United Hunts Races, Belmont Park.

CAPTAIN JOHN

JACOB ASTOR, SECOND SON OF BARON ASTOR OF HEVER CASTLE. Captain Astor of the First Life Guards was wounded early in the war, and returned to England only long enough to recover. He came home in August, on a special leave, to wed Lady Nairne, daughter of the Earl of Minto, leaving for France an hour after the ceremony. Baron Astor settled on him in July property in New York valued at $7,000,000.

(Photo from Underwood & Underwood.)

UNITED STATES BATTLESHIP WYOMING, FRESH FROM THE FALL TARGET PRACTICE OFF THE VIRGINIA CAPES, STEAMING UP THE EAST RIVER TO THE BROOKLYN NAVY YARD FOR THE PERIODICAL DOCKING AND REPAIRS.

(Photo by Edwin Levick.)