

MRS. WILLIAM K. VANDERBILT OF NEW YORK, FIRST AMERICAN WOMAN TO ENTER VERDUN, WHEELING A WOUNDED FRENCH SOLDIER IN THE COURTYARD OF THE AMERICAN HOSPITAL AT NEULLY, FRANCE, OF WHICH SHE IS THE CHIEF DONOR AND SPONSOR.

The Youth Walking Beside Her Is Wearing a New Form of Brace Designed to Hold His Injured Arm at the Desired Elevation.

(Photo from Albert Wyndham, © by The New York Times Co.)

GERMAN PRISONERS OF WAR BRINGING IN WOUNDED BRITISH SOLDIERS FROM THE BATTLEFIELD OF MORVAL, ON THE SOMME FRONT. (Photo by Central News Photo Service.)

MRS. WILLIAM K. VANDERBILT AND A CONVALESCENT FRENCH SOLDIER, WHO LOST AN ARM IN BATTLE, WALKING IN THE GROUNDS OF THE AMERICAN HOSPITAL AT NEULLY, FRANCE.

(Photo from Albert Wyndham, © by The New York Times Co.)

MR. AND MRS. JAY GOULD AND CHILDREN ON THEIR RECENT ARRIVAL IN SAN FRANCISCO ON THEIR WAY TO NEW YORK FROM HONOLULU, MRS. GOULD'S BIRTHPLACE.

(Photo by International Film Service.)

CZAR NICHOLAS II., ON HIS ARRIVAL AT THE FRONT, INSPECTING HIS COSSACK GUARD OF HONOR. (Photo by Central News Photo Service.)