

FIRST INTERLUDE IN THE YALE CELEBRATION OF THE TWO HUNDREDTH ANNIVERSARY OF THE REMOVAL OF YALE COLLEGE TO NEW HAVEN.

The Scene Is the Allegory of the Passing of the Arts and Sciences from the Old World Across the Atlantic to the New to Lay Their Offerings at the Feet of the Infant College. The Participants Are School children of the City of New Haven.

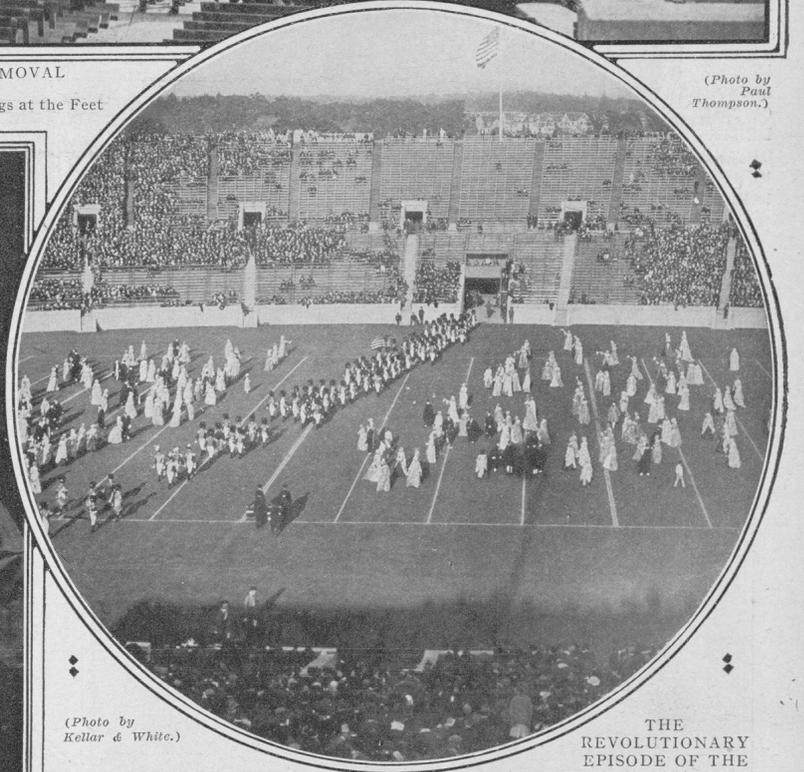

(Photo by Paul Thompson.)

FIRST PHOTOGRAPH OF THE U. S. SUPREME COURT AS NOW CONSTITUTED.

Seated, Left to Right, Are: Justices Day and McKenna, Chief Justice White, Justices Holmes and Van Devanter; Standing: Justices Brandeis, Pitney, McReynolds, and Clarke.

(Photo © by Cinedust Studio, from Underwood & Underwood.)

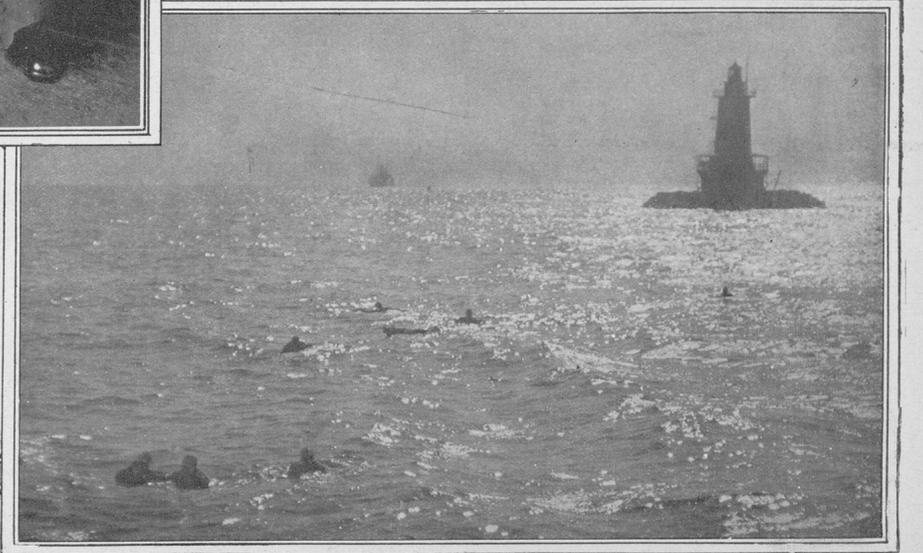

(Photo by Kellar & White.)

THE REVOLUTIONARY EPISODE OF THE YALE CELEBRATION.

The Scene Shows Captain Benedict Arnold of the Governor's Foot Guard, on Hearing the News of the Battle of Lexington, Marching With His Men to Demand of the Selectmen Ammunition for His Company That They Might Hasten to Join the American Forces.

MISS MITCHELL, OF BUCKLAND, ENGLAND, WINNING THE FIRST PRIZE AS A PLOW-GIRL AT THE FARM WORK DEMONSTRATION, GLOUCESTERSHIRE, ENGLAND.

MEN, WOMEN, AND CHILDREN DEMONSTRATING A NEW "SAFETY SUIT" IN A SUNLIT SEA NEAR THE NAVESINK LIGHT OFF THE JERSEY HIGHLANDS.

(Photos by Central News Photo Service.)