

WILLIAM M. CHASE.
From the Last Portrait of the Late Artist by Himself.

(Photo by Hopson & Juniel.)

THE PRINCESS BONCOMPAGNI, LUDOVICI.
Formerly Miss Margaret Preston Draper, whose wedding to Prince Andrea Boncompagni Ludovici of Rome was recently solemnized in Washington by Cardinal Gibbons.
(Photo by Towles Studio.)

MRS. WOODROW WILSON.
From a Snapshot Made in Cincinnati When She Accompanied the President on His Recent Visit to That City.
(Photo from Underwood & Underwood.)

THE DUCHESS OF MARLBOROUGH, FORMERLY MISS CONSUELO VANDERBILT OF NEW YORK.
From a New Painting by Ambrose McEvoy, said to be the most admired Contribution to this Year's Autumn Exhibition of the English Society of Sculptors, Painters and Gravers, now being held at the Grosvenor
Gallery,
London.

MISS LOUISE HOMER, Daughter of Mr.
and Mrs. Sidney Homer, who sings
with her mother, Mme.
Louise Homer, today
at the Shadyside Presbyterian Church, Pittsburg, at the celebration of the Fiftieth Anniversary of this Church, of which Mrs. Homer's father, the Rev. Dr.
William Prindle Beatty, was one of the founders and its first pastor.

(Photo by Makin.)

MME. ANNA PAVLOVA IN A SCENE FROM HER SWAN BALLET.
(Photo by Count Jean de Strelecki.)