

WITH THE COST OF LIVING HIGH, AND THE GREATEST RUN OF FISH, PARTICULARLY MACKEREL, FOR A GREAT MANY YEARS NOW ON IN LONG ISLAND SOUND, THE BORDERING DOCKS AND SHORES ARE DAILY FILLED WITH FISHERS OF BOTH SEXES, MANY MOTHERS BRINGING THEIR LUNCHES AND BABIES AND SPENDING THE DAY. The Photograph Shows a Daily Scene Near Stamford, Connecticut.

(Photos © by Brown & Dawson.)

MISS MARTHA KEEP, Debutante Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hallam Keep.

(Photo from the Misses Selby.)

SOUND FISHERMAN WITH HIS BASKET NEARLY FILLED AND ANOTHER "BEAUTY" TO ADD TO IT.

(Photo from Underwood & Underwood.)

THE ALTAR PIECE REMAINED ALMOST INTACT WHEN THE CHURCH OF MONTE SANTO, NEAR GORIZIA, MUCH VISITED BY PILGRIMS AND TOURISTS, WAS RECENTLY DESTROYED BY THE CROSS-FIRE OF AUSTRIAN AND ITALIAN BATTERIES.

MISS JULIET GRIFFITH, A Dancer at the Halloween Costume Ball at the Ardsley Club, Ardsley-on-the-Hudson. (Photo from International Film Service.)

THE PROCESSION OF VISITING CLERGYMEN THROUGH THE CHURCHYARD TO ST. PAUL'S CHAPEL TO ATTEND THE CELEBRATION OF THE 150TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE OPENING OF THE CHURCH. (Photo © American Press Assn.)