

ALPHONSO, PRINCE OF THE ASTURIAS, HEIR TO THE SPANISH THRONE, AND HIS BROTHER, PRINCE JAIME, ATTENDING THE RECENT ANNUAL ENCAMPMENT AND ROYAL REVIEW OF THE BOY SCOUTS OF SPAIN, OF WHICH THEY ARE MEMBERS. (Photo from U. & U.)

Start of the Great Procession This Year From Cairo for Mecca, Pilgrims Bearing the Gold and Silver Embroidered Kiswah or Coverings to be Placed Upon the Caaba, the Small Stone Building at Mecca, Which Contains the Famous Stone Blackened by the Sins of Men.

(Photo from Underwood & Underwood.)

JOHN McCORMACK, THE OPERATIC TENOR, WITH HIS FAMILY AT THEIR COUNTRY HOME AT TOKENEKE PARK, CONNECTICUT (Photo © by Mishkin.)

MARY GARDEN, THE OPERATIC SOPRANO, WHO IS SOON TO RETURN TO AMERICA, IN HER HOME IN PARIS. From a recent photograph just received in this country. (Photo from Root Newspaper Assn.)

ELSIE JANIS. In "The Century Girl" at the Century Theatre.

(Photo by Marceau.)

PHRYNETTE'S FAREWELL TO PIERROT, With Marjorie Patterson as Pierrot and Marie Louise Renee as Phrynette, in a Scene from "Pierrot the Prodigal," at the Little Theatre. (Photo by White.)

(Photo © Amer. Press. Assn.)

MISS MAY AMICO AND ANTOINETTE PANTANO, Of the Italian Teachers Association, As Roman Peasants at the Italian Bazaar.

MISS FIFI WIDENER, Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Widener, Philadelphia, and Mrs. John Magee (on horseback) of New York, at White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia. (Photo © by Underwood & Underwood.)